LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Colleagues:

As I begin my second year as your president, I want to write one of the most sincere letters you will ever receive. To tell the story and ask the pertinent questions will make it rather long, but PLEASE READ IT THROUGH.

The Alumnae Board, other alumnae leaders, and I want to ask your help in celebrating Mary Washington College's 60th Anniversary in the greatest sort of way. We are baking the cake with the very finest ingredients: Devotion, Dedication, Enthusiasm, Co-operativeness, and a dash of Zeal. Literally speaking, it is being concocted of study, hard work, generosity, and optimism about the future direction and status of the College. We'll try to see that it is of the finest texture.

Will you help us frost it? This will mean perseverance for the quality and status of the College, and the recipe follows:

1. Continued study of what direction the College should take — a co-ordinate relationship with the University of Virginia or separation with its own Board. (Here, I hasten to bring you up-to-date on developments. We have made the recommendations to the University Board of Visitors, as outlined in my letter to you in the Spring issue of the Alumnae News. As a result, the Board has authorized Chancellor Simpson to appoint a Faculty-Administrative Committee to Study the Future of the College. We think this is a giant step in the right direction, and are grateful that our efforts have brought special attention to Mary Washington. We are quite amenable to the postponement of action on our recommendations until the Chancellor's committee states its opinions.)

The MWC Graduate Now

What She Is Doing What She Is Thinking

If you wear a black-and-gold MWC ring on your right hand, the odds are nine-to-one that you have a wedding band on the other. Your husband is a college man and you have two children, maybe three, seldom more.

Because you don't believe a woman with small children should work — unless absolutely necessary — you put your energies into volunteer activities during the day. But you used to have a career, even after you were married, and you look forward to picking it up again once the youngsters are grown. In fact, you just might start looking around as soon as all the little ones are snugly in school full time. After all, you have one college degree and a running start on another one, and you think an educated woman should make her contribution . . .

This is the image of the MWC Alumna as she emerged from the mountains of data that came in on the questionnaire we sent out in last Winter's edition of the News.

Hoping to gather some answers to these questions, the Alumnae Association has composed the brief quiz below. It ranges across a variety of areas, some of them intentionally "personal." For this reason — and because we are interested only in the composite picture of Mary Washington graduates — we ask you NOT to sign your name when you send in your answers. Do think the questions through carefully and respond honestly, writing your answers in the spaces on the postcard beside the number corresponding to the question. Then tear off the card and return it to the Alumnae Association office before April 20. The results should make very interesting reading in a future issue of the Alumnae News. Your additional comments are encouraged (see No. 26).

1. How long ago did you attend MWC?
2. Are you married?
3. Is your husband a college man?
4. How many children do you have?
5. If you did not graduate from MWC, did you ever earn your college degree?
6. Have you pursued formal education after MWC? (a.) Full or part time? (b.) Did you earn an advanced degree? What? (c.)
7. Why did you go back to school — teaching requirement, career purposes, for fun, other?
8. How well did your college education prepare you for your role as wife and mother: well, adequately, inadequately?
9. Do you now wish you had taken more subjects related to homemaking, such as home economics, child psychology, etc.?
10. If you were just starting college now would you choose the same major?

11. Have you been employed since your marriage? (a.) Full or part time? (b.) Are you working now? (c.) Full or part time (d.)
12. Is was your work related to your undergraduate major?
13. Do you believe a woman with children should work? (a.) After her children are how old? (b.)
14. If you work, is it due to necessity (a.) boredom at home (b.) other (c)?
15. If you work, do you feel guilty of neglecting your family and home duties? (a.) Do you honestly think you are better off in more than just financial ways? (b.)
16. If you work, does your husband object or does he encourage you? (a.) Does he willingly assume a share of the household chores? (b.)
17. Estimate the number of times you were absent or late to work during the past year because of sick children or other family household responsibilities.

Back came 634 fact-filled cards, some 7.9 per cent of the total 8,023 that went out to alumnae across this country and abroad. The heaviest response came, predictably, from the youngest generations of graduates, those who had been out less than five years. But five First Ladies of MWC, those who were here at least 45 years ago, also sent in their data.

Some respondents left occasional blanks on their cards, while others couldn't choose between the alternatives and checked several spots. So, although the overall results may not be up to Gallop Poll standards, they combine to give an interesting picture of how the Mary Washington Alumna lives and thinks.

Question No. 26 provoked some especially salient thoughts, including an 11-page letter citing the evils of working mothers, several newspaper clippings on various topics, and a barrage of complaints from single alumnae who felt that the questionnaire was too weighted toward married women. Actually, 11 of the 26 questions were aimed exclusively at the Mrs. among us. They are decidedly in the majority (90 per cent of the respondents are married), but the unmarried girls' opinions were equally valuable in drawing our composite picture of the MWC graduate. In addition, the single girl often shared her married counterparts' ideas about such things as Question No. 13 ("No," nearly everyone agreed, "unless your family needs the money or Mother can arrange to beat the children home from school every day.")

Looking at the other questions individually, we find that 71 per cent of Mary Washington's married alumnae found a man with at least some college education. And some knowledge of housework, too — about a third of the wives said their spouses helped with the chores when they got bogged down because of their other job. Full-time jobs are held by some 38 per cent of the alumnae who responded to the quiz, with an additional 12 per cent working part-time.

While the single women are working to support themselves, of course, they also cite other good reasons for their gray flannel suits: self-fulfillment, "a desire to contribute," the obligation to use their educations. The married women echo those reasons. Altogether, however, there are 160 candid admissions that necessity is one reason they are working. (This number was considerably boosted by the young marrieds who explained that they're working to put hubby through school.) Husbands, by the way, seem to smile upon working wives — or at least, only two per cent object openly. Overall, the whopping majority of

I. graduates of MWC, and they have two children, Tip and Ellen. the women who work, or have worked in the past, agree that their families "are better off in more than just financial ways." However, 80 individuals will admit that they sometimes feel guilty of neglecting the hearth because of the office.

They certainly don't neglect their jobs. Only 28 of the 321 women now working said they missed (or were late) more than six days last year because of their family obligations. Overall, the majority of the employed alumnae (and that includes the nearly 90 per cent who have worked sometime after marriage) found jobs related to their college majors. And, although some dissatisfaction seems to creep in the longer they have been out of MWC, the majority of the alumnae say they would choose their same majors if they were starting college all over again. Concurrently, they declare better than two to one that they don't now long for more college training in homemaking, child psychology and such practical subjects (only 45 tiny voices of the 634 label their college training "inadequate" preparation for marriage and motherhood).

As a springboard for further education, MWC seems fairly successful. Only nine per cent of the respondents who started their undergraduate education failed to complete degree requirements, either at Mary Washington or another college. Sixty-five per cent say they have pursued further education in some way, with 17 per cent holding master's degrees. However, only one per cent have gone all the way to Ph.D. level. "Career" ranks as the main reason the women have gone back to school. Teaching requirements prompted the next largest return to the classroom, but many students cite both the above reasons, plus "fun," "fulfillment," "intellectual curiosity," and the like.

This same "intellectual curiosity," we report happily, seems to carry over to the respondents' social and private life, too. Some 480 respondents declared their preference for social discussions about politics, world affairs, the arts, etc., as opposed to straight "girl talk" (although a number of those 480 checked both areas and strongly defended the importance of the latter.)

Daily newspapers and new magazines (often more than one) topped the reading list, with women's interest magazines a close third. Reading interest still runs high in publications related to the alumnae's college major, but all those classics we didn't quite get to at MWC aren't being gotten to yet — that category fell well behind all the others on the reading list. Dr. Spock, baby and child care, books on antiques and such were most often written into the "other" category. Still, reading and other individual cultural activities take a slight back seat to organized activities. The survey shows that more than half the respondents take their culture in group form: lecture series, Great Books groups, etc.

Organized charity in nearly every form occupies the majority of Mary Washington's alumnae. Only 26 per cent said they took no part in volunteer work. The others' interests predictably paralleled those of their family — P-TA, Little League, Scouts of both genders, etc. Local-level politics also draws a great deal of volunteer energy.

No matter how busy she gets with bandwagons, cookie sales and such, the MWC graduate says she keeps her mind on broader horizons, worrying about both national and international problems. Only 19 per cent of the respondents confessed that they give little or no thought to the greater pictures of life. For the rest the war in Vietnam is foremost in mind. Next comes everything from racial strife and rioting here at home, to the United Nations and America's relationship with the Soviet Union and the rest of the world. MWC women worry about air pollution, over-population, outdated abortion laws, conservation of natural resources and federal control over the farmer, the state and private enterprise. Only a dozen or so worry overtly about Communist China, and no one mentioned Cuba. At least a handful are sufficiently aroused by France's General De Gaulle to include him in their list. Understandably, a lot of think time goes to such close-to-home topics as education, the rising crime rate and the cost of living. There are relatively few thoughts of the church, the change in moral values and the death tolls on the nation's highways.

Sadly, there are also relatively few thoughts of old friends from Mary Washington days. Only 35 per cent of the respondents said they maintained "active" contact with more than five MWCers (we discounted yearly Christmas card exchanges). And even fewer — only two per cent — have ever returned to the college for a Homecoming Week End. Most alumnae say they have or will come when their class marks a special reunion, 10th, 25th, etc. There is, however, an enthusiastic little minority who seem to have the "Homecoming habit" — some have been back nearly every year since they graduated.

Statistically, then, that's how the Mary Washington graduate shapes up! Busy with her family but not tied to her own apron strings when it comes to her community, her nation, her world. Carrying on a career because she's interested both in it and in her obligation to give a "return" on her training. Stimulated to further study because it will boost that career, or just because she enjoys learning. There are a few dull spots — that 19 per cent who admit no thoughts of mankind's affairs or problems — but generally, the questionnaire produced a bright picture of yesterday's graduate living usefully in today's world. Thanks for your part in producing that conclusion.

2. Increased scholarships for graduate study for MWC students.
3. Stimulation of Alumnae Interest through Information to Membership and Education of Leaders. (Though the Alumnae News is the chief organ of communication, we find we cannot afford to increase its volume at times when this would be beneficial. Our budget does not allow representatives to American Alumni Council meetings and other worthwhile conferences, workshops and forums in which the majority of good colleges participate.)

4. More contact with current students and their parents.

(We made great strides in this direction last year and found, as we suspected, that the students' image of an alumna prior to meeting us and seeing us in action was quite different from what they found us to be. It has erased the picture of us as a group of old busybodies, making idle chatter and criticisms. They are pleasantly surprised to find a group of capable, lively women of all ages engaged in meaningful work, and a number of them — particularly student leaders, as well as their parents — have become extremely interested in our activities. These girls can become very valuable alumnae and their parents loyal supporters if we can find the wherewithal to have more gatherings and expand communication.)

5. Increased Endowment

(Our Quest XX Insured Endowment Program has surpassed the $40,000 mark now. We hope surely to have $60,000 by the end of our 60TH year. Money earned through this, and later inherited by the College can make the difference between mediocrity or superiority. We must make it clear, however, that this does not supplant annual giving which, of necessity, must be given priority for operational costs, publications, etc. . . . But, as you can see, more and more are finding it possible to contribute to both, since the premiums on the insurance are so low, and the returns to the college can be tremendous!)

All of this boils down to one simple word-----GIVING.

Now, will you bear with me through my personal testimonial?

I attended Mary Washington College (then FSTC) only one year, and for many years thereafter could not have been more indifferent. I was under the impression that through tuition and taxes I had paid my way — what a false illusion I now know this to be! I gave nothing in money or service. I am not proud of this, and am trying very hard to make amends on both scores. Admittedly, the direction my life has taken has awakened me to the importance of having attended Mary Washington, even briefly, and to the significance of alumnae support to any college or university.

As a citizen of Virginia I have, with great pride, observed Mary Washington develop into the only state-aided liberal arts college for women. As a parent of a 1961 graduate and a student, who has attended three years, I have been more than pleased. During nine years of challenging work for the University of Virginia at its Roanoke Extension Center, I learned a great deal about higher education. For the past five years I have served as secretary to President John A. Logan, Jr., of Hollins College, a most rewarding and stimulating experience. My involvement in higher education and exposure to scholarly people have been invaluable in the work I am attempting for the MWC Alumnae Association. Through my service on your Board for the last two years, I believe I have gained a fairly good insight into Mary Washington's particular needs.

My year at Fredericksburg has been compensated for more than a thousand-fold. Now I feel that because of the training I received anything I can do to pay for my good fortune is a privilege rather than a burdensome duty. It is my sincere hope that you will feel the same way when you get messages from our Fund Chairman, Rose Bennett Gilbert, throughout the year.

Do me a favor, will you? Take time to evaluate YOUR experience at Mary Washington College. What has it meant in your life? Don't consider only the financial gains from your education, but think about the intangibles — perhaps the appreciation of art or music, the lasting friendships you made, the lifetime interests you may have developed there. Wouldn't you like to give something in return? If each of you 8000 members gave a minimum of $3.00 we would meet our budget for the year. I can scarcely believe that any MWC alumna actually can't afford this amount. Naturally many of you MUST and WILL continue to give a great deal more — some ten, and a few even a hundred times as much. It really boils down to what your heart and conscience dictate.

Let's put the icing on the cake and light 60 bright candles to reflect full alumnae participation at our Anniversary Homecoming next June. How about it?

Best wishes to all,
Adele Crowgey Giles

ADMINISTRATIVE CHANGES

Dr. Reginald W. Whidden's assumption of duties as Dean of the College succeeding Dr. Edward Alvey, Jr., headed a list of major administrative changes prior to the 1967-68 school session at Mary Washington College.

Dr. Alvey, who retired after thirty-four years in the post, will continue as Professor of Education on the faculty.

Dr. James H. Croushore, formerly Professor and Chairman of the English Department, succeeded Dr. Whidden as Associate Dean of the College.

Other administrative changes include: Michael Houston, Assistant to the Chancellor; Mrs. Emily A. Holloway, Assistant Dean of Students and Director of Student Affairs; and Mrs. Jane N. Saladin, Registrar; also, Thomas P. Mann, Director of Information Services and Assistant Director of Admissions; Edward V. Allison, Jr., as Business Manager and Miss Ann L. ## MARY WASHINGTON'S FUTURE TO BE CONSIDERED BY A SPECIAL COMMITTEE

by Michael Houston

Chancellor Grellet C. Simpson, acting under the authority of the University of Virginia Board of Visitors, has appointed an ten-member faculty and administrative committee to consider Mary Washington College's future role in higher education, not only in the Commonwealth but also in the nation.

The Chancellor's recommendation that the committee be established was made to the Board of Visitors at its June meeting in Charlottesville. Earlier, in April, the Status Study Committee of the Mary Washington Alumnae Board had presented a report to the Mary Washington College Committee of the University Board.

The new committee, which begins its work in mid-October, will be empowered to conduct interviews with students, alumnae, and outside consultants in an effort to determine what is the best possible future for Mary Washington.

No timetable for the committee's work has been established, but all recommendations will be made directly to the Chancellor.

ASIAN CONFERENCE

Dr. Grellet C. Simpson headed a group from Mary Washington College which attended a ten-day Asian Study Conference at St. John's College in Santa Fe, New Mexico last July.

Other members of the group were Dean Reginald W. Whidden, Associate Dean James H. Croushore, and Dr. Kurt F. Leidecker, professor of philosophy.

The Conference, which dealt with Indian Civilization, was one of three sponsored by the Association of American Colleges through a grant from the Old Dominion Foundation. Its purpose was to provide college administrators and faculties with additional information regarding the material available on the non-western world.

ministrative Assistant to the Director of Admissions.

Named to the committee were: Mrs. Mildred M. Bolling, Professor of Modern Foreign Languages; Mr. Andrew Buni, Assistant Professor of History; Miss Mildred A. Droste, Assistant Dean of Students and Associate Professor of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation; Mr. George W. Grayson, Jr., Assistant Professor of Economics and Political Science; Mr. Michael Houston, Assistant to the Chancellor and Associate Professor of History; and Mrs. Mary A. K. Kelly ('44), Associate Professor of Psychology.

Also appointed were: Mr. Albert R. Klein, Professor and Chairman of the Dramatic Arts and Speech Department; Mr. Kurt F. Leidecker, Professor of Philosophy; Mr. Bernard L. Mahoney, Jr., Assistant Professor of Chemistry; and Mr. Sidney Mitchell, Professor and Chairman of the English Department.

QUEST XX REPORT

A 1967 alumna, Miss Susan Church, who was president of last year's graduating class, will assist Mrs. S.E. Patrick (Jane Howard '48) in promoting the Quest XX Insurance program this year.

It is particularly significant that Susie Church has volunteered to work on this program in view of the fact that the $5,000 gift policy contributed by the Class of 1967 is on her life. Susie is working and living in the Washington area this year and will concentrate on contacting recent graduates living nearby.

Both Mrs. Patrick and Susie Church believe that through this program the alumnae of Mary Washington College have an opportunity to make a very significant contribution to the future of the institution which has been responsible for their college education.

Since Homecoming two new policies have been written, bringing the total amount to $44,500. The contributors were Olivia Wheeler McCallum '36 of Newport News and Frances Belman Haddock of Fairfax.

CHALLENGE AND RESPONSE

By Margaret Hargrove

Toward the conclusion of his one volume edition of "Study of History" Arnold Toynbee speaks of our century as being a critical time which calls for the utmost exertion of certain faculties — "Here is a challenge which we cannot evade, and our destiny depends on our response."

At Mary Washington the challenge for intelligent, responsible learning and living in the classroom, within the residence halls, and throughout the campus has been provided in three particular "documents" — Magna Carta being the Purpose of the College adopted by the Faculty in 1961; the Bill of Rights being Chancellor Simpson's significant Letter to Students which first appeared in September 1966; and the Constitution being the revised Student Government Association Constitution along with the Student Handbook which lists fewer specific "residence rules," and these formulated and enforced in large part by the students themselves.

The response is indicated by a more complete acceptance and execution on the part of student officers, other leaders, and a growing number of students at large, of the management of their residential, governmental and social affairs. With the opening of Jefferson Hall in 1967-68 there is being initiated a residential complex which has a Residence Hall Director (formerly called Head Resident, and even "further back in history" known as House Mother) and a Senior Assistant with the usual student government setup of Hall President and other officers. The term residence hall is being introduced, rather than dormitory since it more nearly describes the function of that unit of college life. To Jefferson will be "attached administratively" Westmoreland Hall headed by two Senior Assistants with the usual student government setup (over 100 residents), and Trench Hill (20) with a Senior Assistant and the SGA Hall President. The Residence Hall Director in Jefferson, a member of the staff of the Office of the Dean of Students, will serve in a consultative and directive capacity to these "attachments." The position of Senior Assistant is a paid one; these young women, five in number in four residential buildings, are also on the staff of the Office of Dean of Students. Such an Assistant is an academic senior who carries a full study load.

The two language houses, Marye (Spanish) and Brent (French), will have their academic programs directed by the Department of Modern Foreign Languages; the student government setup in these houses will manage the residential and social programs under the guidance of the Office of the Dean of Students. Russell Hall, with a Faculty Resident from the History Department, one Senior Assistant, and the SGA Hall President, is in its third year of developing and extending student responsibility; it has set the pace and served somewhat as a laboratory for such a program, fulfilling the general plan of extension of responsibility when students indicate their capability and willingness to assume such obligations and enjoy such privileges. Last year Westmoreland Hall for the first time operated under a similar plan with a Staff Assistant in charge who had departmental academic duties, and two Senior Assistants: Trench Hill had a Staff Assistant who had dual academic and office responsibilities.

Alumnae will be particularly interested in reading and pondering the Chancellor's previously mentioned letter. Quoted below with his permission as it appears in the current Student Handbook, it not only establishes the frame of reference on which such extension of student responsibility is based but also provides the challenge to which student leadership responds, and on which a measure of student destiny depends.

LETTER FROM THE CHANCELLOR

An introduction to a handbook of a college is really, and should be, an introduction to the way of life of that college. Thus you will find within this booklet some "rules and regulations" agreed upon by the government of the students and the administration of the College. These rules constitute an exposition of the various commitments as a citizen of the college community which the student accepts and agrees to uphold. I do not feel that any student should enter the College, or even request admission, unless she is willing to live as a law-abiding citizen of our collegiate community and be obedient to its commitments.

In the second place, the student will find that she will be expected, quite naturally and rightly, to observe the laws of the Commonwealth. She is a citizen of the State while she is in residence at Mary Washington College, and the obligations and responsibilities of a Virginia citizen become her obligation and her responsibility.

In the third place, there is another type of civic responsibility at Mary Washington College which a student accepts, even though there are no precise rules or procedures to define the boundaries within which this responsibility is most readily exercised. In our way of life at Mary Washington College there are some assumptions made by all of us that involve matters or problems of taste, matters of choice and judgement, matters of tradition, matters of courtesy, matters of the genteel in life. These assumptions are a part of our civilization at Mary Wash-

CLARA BOYD WHEELER WINS DISTINGUISHED ALUMNA AWARD

The second annual Distinguished Alumna Award was presented at the Homecoming luncheon on June 3, by Mrs. L.J. Giles, Jr., President, to Miss Clara Boyd Wheeler, '31, a native of Clifton Forge who became a world citizen.

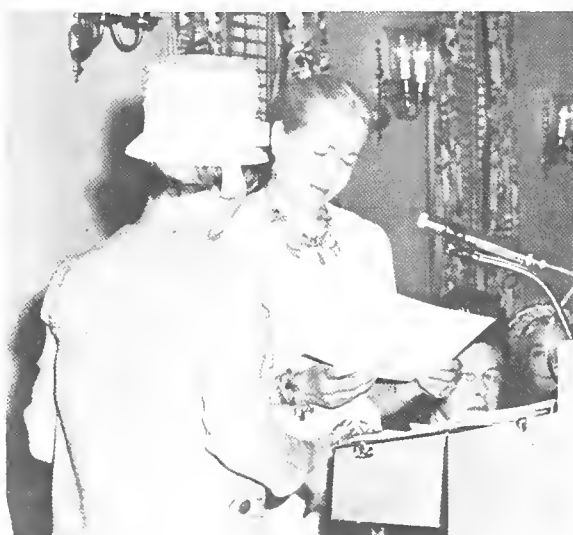

When Clara Boyd Wheeler received her diploma from Fredericksburg State Teachers College (now Mary Washington College) in 1931, with social studies and physical education and health as her majors, she probably did not dream that she would one day be using her training to help people on the other side of the world. Before coming to Fredericksburg, she had attended Randolph-Macon Woman's College for one year, the University of Virginia one summer, and had taught a term in Bath County.

During the next five years she directed summer recreation programs at Wheeling, West Virginia, and Clifton Forge and Arlington, Virginia. Then in 1937 she became Associate Director of Health and Physical Education for the YWCA in Washington, D.C. While holding this position she attended the National Catholic School of Social Work.

The war years of 1941-47 brought thousands of soldiers, sailors and marines into such areas as Washington and Norfolk, and USO's were established to provide recreational and other facilities for them. Clara Boyd Wheeler was named director of the USO program in these two cities. Elizabeth Luce Moore, chairman of the National USO, said she was "deeply impressed by the magnificent way in which Miss Wheeler managed a huge and complicated program but never once lost sight of the individual human beings for whom all this machinery was set in motion."

At the close of the war the King of England gave her a medal "for service in the Cause of Freedom," in recognition of her work with English service people who had been stationed in the Washington area.

The Greek YWCA had become greatly disorganized during the war years, and when the International YWCA was asked to send a consultant to help the war-torn country revitalize this much-needed organization, Miss

At the Homecoming luncheon Mrs. L. J. Giles, Jr., President, presented the Distinguished Alumna Award to Miss Clara Boyd Wheeler of New York.

Wheeler was given the assignment. From 1948 until 1956 she assisted the Greek women in rebuilding their centers and programs. For the purpose of training young women from all parts of Greece in group work, community organization and recreation, she helped found the YWCA School of Social Work in Kifissia, near Athens, which offered a one-year course. Miss Wheeler traveled to all parts of Greece and a colleague said of her that she worked equally successfully with members of the royal family and with refugees in the factories. Before she left Greece she had the satisfaction of seeing a new ten-story YWCA building opened in Athens.

She was next assigned to Ethiopia, working there for three and one-half years. She helped a group of Ethiopian women, including the Emperor's daughter, develop an educational center for women at Addis Ababa, financed under Point IV of the U.S. Technical Aid Program. Called the H.I.H. Princess Tenange Worq School, after His Majesty's oldest daughter, it is conducted in the national language of Amharic, and teaches a two-year course in reading, writing, arithmetic, homemaking, child care, health, nutrition, citizenship, sewing, arts and crafts. The program later expanded to include short sessions for literacy classes. Again Miss Wheeler showed great skill in working with students of diverse backgrounds and in planning the administrative details of the program with American and Ethiopian officials.

In 1958 Miss Wheeler represented the World YMCA at the inaugural meeting of the Economic Commission for Africa, held in Addis Ababa, and was the first woman to speak before it.

Upon her return to the USA in 1960, Miss Wheeler was named executive director of the Peninsula YWCA at Newport News, leaving that post in 1964 to become coordinator of hospitality services for the Institute of International Education at United Nations Plaza, New York City.

But YWCA work has again claimed Miss Wheeler. In September she assumed the duties of executive director of the Brooklyn, New York YWCA.

Miss Wheeler was nominated by Mrs. J.W. Wetmore (Ethel Nelson, '36) who was also introduced at the luncheon. Her father, Frank H. Wheeler, of Clifton Forge, and her sister, Mrs. Charles F. McCallum (Olivia Wheeler, '36) were present at Homecoming.

Miss Wheeler served as President of the Alumnae Association in 1940.

Alumna College at Homecoming featured a panel discussion of "India Today, Its Culture, Its Politics, the Education of Its Women." Mrs. Elmer Morris (Marceline Weatherly '50) standing, introduced the speakers.— Dr. Roger L. Kenvin and Dr. Mary Ellen Stephenson who had each spent a year teaching in India; Chancellor Grellet C. Simpson and Dr. Elizabeth Lam, who had helped set up the faculty exchange program; and Dr. Lewis P. Fickett, who is now teaching in India.

Dr. Edward Alvey, Jr., who retired as Dean on Sept. 1, after 34 years of service, was honored with several social events and a number of gifts at the close of the academic year. Chancellor and Mrs. Simpson entertained with a reception at Brompton on May 22, at which the guests of honor were Dr. and Mrs. Alvey and Miss Katherine Moran, who retired as Assistant Dean of Students. At the Homecoming luncheon the Alumnae Association presented to the rare book room of E. Lee Trinkle Library, in Dr. Alvey's honor, a two-volume first edition of Dr. Samuel Johnson's Dictionary of the English Language, published in 1755. They also gave him a silver tray.

Members of the Fredericksburg Chapter of the Alumnae Association were hostesses at a reception at Spotswood on May 21, at which Dr. and Mrs. Alvey were presented a silver bowl.

AN ADVENTURE IN AFRICA

"I must confess that Kenya has more than lived up to all my fabulous expectations," writes Mrs. Glen W. Ferguson (Patti Head '50), wife of the American Ambassador to this country of 224,960 square miles located on the east coast of Africa and bordering on the Indian Ocean.

The Fergusons and their three children, Bruce, Sherry and Scott, arrived in Nairobi, capitol city, in October 1966. Since then they have traveled as much as possible to the provinces and have made many satisfying contacts with the Kenyans, as well as with members of the American Community. They are also studying Swahili, the language spoken throughout eastern Africa.

On a recent trip they toured teacher training colleges and community centers and were impressed with the warm response and many questions. "The majority of the questions dealt with the role of women in an African society where they yearn for independence and yet question how one can combine community and political activity with caring for a husband and children," Mrs. Ferguson comments.

Since her arrival in Nairobi Mrs. Ferguson has been active in the American Women's Association. Many foreign service wives, she says, contribute their time to hospital work and a few become involved in teaching. One of the most imaginative programs is conducted by an American wife who designs cotton fabrics and teaches block printing and dyeing to a large group of indigent girls who have developed considerable skill and are now prepared to carry on the work.

Meetings of the National Council of Women of Kenya Mrs. Ferguson finds very interesting. Representatives from every part of Kenya attend. At one, she says, "Tom Mboya, Minister of Economic Development and Planning, gave a delightful analysis of the importance of women in an agricultural economy, stressing that a very small proportion of women are to be found in the cities, that the percentage of women attending school and colleges is rising rapidly and that the educated females must not lose touch with the villages."

Although the equator passes through Kenya, the climate of Nairobi, the chief city, is very pleasant, as it is located in the highlands between 17,040 feet Mt. Kenya on the north and 19,340 feet Mt. Kilimanjaro on the southeast. The latter, on the border between Kenya and Tanzania and about a day's drive from Nairobi, is the highest peak in Africa and one of the highest in the world. With the usual teen-age love of adventure, 13-year-old Bruce was very eager to climb it. A climbing party was planned and in a letter to Mrs. S. W. Patrick (Jane Howard '48) Mrs. Ferguson, who also made the trip, describes the exciting adventure.

"We arranged a trip with five other boys (all older), a 19-year-old girl, and one other lady and took off, while Glenn was busy, busy, and the other children in school.

"It took us a full day to drive to the hotel in Moshi, Tanzania, and the road was so bad we all 'wondered' if we'd ever walk again. The next morning, our things, excuse me, 'gear' was repacked for us, porters assigned, sleeping bags doled out and we started off. We climbed 12 miles that day; it seemed straight up to me. Spent the night in a smoky hut after a good meal which the guide prepared; the next day walked 12 miles, and the third day the same. It had been rainy and misty for the first two days but on the third day the sun came out and we had our first clear, close view of Mt. Kilimanjaro. Breathing-taking!

"As we approached the hut (actually an aluminum shed) we were around 15,000 feet and going so slowly — had to stop every eight steps or so to catch our breath.

"On the fourth day, we were awakened at 1 a.m. (after a few fitful hours of sleep). Struggled into the rest of our warm clothes, climbing boots, woolen mittens, etc., (and there I was, putting in contact lenses by the flickering light of a kerosene lamp!) The other lady, Mrs. Harman, decided not to attempt the climb and before we had been gone an hour, her daughter and one of the boys turned back. The altitude and cold made them feel they couldn't breathe at all.

"We started out with a full moon overhead and it was so clear and calm. The three guides all carried kerosene lamps. I felt as though we were on our way to work in the mines. We went so slowly and after three hours were only half way. Rested in a cave for 20 minutes. Two of the boys really felt ill at that point and crumpled in little heaps each time we stopped for breath. Anyhow, we entered the snow line at that point and for the next five hours struggled bit by bit over snow and ice and occasionally, volcanic scree. About 100 yards from the top when we couldn't see the Point we were trying to reach, we almost gave up. It's supposed to take five and a half hours up and back but we had so much snow it was much more time consuming. The sun was up and beating on our backs, we shed our heavy clothes and somehow managed to reach the top. What exhilaration! The guides were so pleased and we all felt so proud of ourselves! Bruce had brought along a small American flag to tie on the top (there is an aluminum pole there and a book to sign names in), and we took many photographs.

"It took us an hour and a half to get back to the hut. We slid on the snow over a mile and completely wore out the seats of our outer britches. What fun! Stumbled back into camp, ate a little canned fruit, changed into dry clothes and then walked 12 miles back to the second hut. Can you imagine? If anyone had ever told me I would do such a thing, I would have thought them mad. But we were so keyed up, we fairly bounced.

"The last day we walked all 24 miles back to the hotel and were presented with garlands of pink everlasting flowers for our hats. I still feel like wearing it always!"

Mrs. Ferguson was a member of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee of the Alumnae Association when President Johnson appointed her husband as Ambassador to Kenya.

EDUCATION IS "BIG BUSINESS"

A Discussion of Your Alma Mater's
Financial Needs

by Thomas P. Mann

Mary Washington College has projected operating expenses of $10,234,420 for the 1968-70 biennium in a proposed budget submitted to the State Budget Office.

This, in addition to the College's capital outlay request which was submitted earlier, brings the total requests to $12,552,420.

The proposed operating expenditures show an increase of $2,800,000 over the expenses of the current 1966-68 biennium and while it represents only thirty-four per cent of the budget, the request for tax monies from the General Fund is ninety-one per cent greater than the amount presently received by the College.

This means that $3,544,230 in state tax money is being requested from the G.F. while the remaining amount, some $6,690,190, will come from the College's Special Fund, which is derived from student tuition and other fees.

In requesting a high percentage of support from the General Fund, Mary Washington College Chancellor Dr. Grellet C. Simpson said that it was a necessary measure. "The present student fee schedule," Dr. Simpson said, "is as high as is consistent with the goals of state-supported higher education, and greater financial support from the Commonwealth itself is now the only means for maintaining and improving the quality of instruction and for attracting and retaining a highly qualified student body and faculty."

In past years, Dr. Simpson noted, auxiliary enterprises, such as the college shop and bookstore, have enjoyed a surplus, which has underwritten some of the cost of the educational program. Now, however, with rising actual costs and the apportionment of indirect costs, this significant surplus can no longer be projected.

Dr. Simpson also noted that, if granted, the Mary Washington request will still compare favorably with appropriations for comparable state institutions.

If approved, the additional funds would be used for a number of purposes. A major portion of the request would provide for some thirteen new faculty positions, for five per cent annual salary increases as authorized by the Governor for these and existing faculty positions, and for faculty salaries for two summer sessions. This would account for $668,842 of the increase.

Some $194,600 would be allotted to meet the cost of eleven new positions filled for 1967-68 that would be continued in the next biennium, while $180,000 would provide for new and upgraded administrative positions made necessary by an enlarged student body and a strengthened instructional program. A total of $295,720 would provide for new positions and merit increases for the library staff, for skilled and unskilled maintenance personnel, and for student employees.

In addition to its operating budget requests, Mary Washington College earlier asked for $2,318,000 from the General Fund in capital outlay expenditures for the 1968-70 biennium. Major items in this request were $938,000 for an addition to Chandler Hall, a classroom building; $280,000 for construction of a new laundry building, which was listed as the number one priority; $266,000 for renovation of Monroe Hall, also a classroom facility; and $218,000 for the purchase of two parcels of land at the college entrance, including Betty Lewis, a residential hall which the College currently rents from a local corporation with an option to purchase.

Mary Washington has also proposed construction of a 200-unit dormitory at a cost of $1,100,000. Funds for this project would be obtained through an issue of revenue bonds and is not included in capital outlay expenditures.

Mr. Mann is now Director of Information Services and Assistant Director of Admissions. Formerly he was a member of the staff and college reporter for the Free Lance-Star of Fredericksburg.

HISTORY MAJOR WINS T J CUP

Miss Ann Louise Perinchief was recipient of the Thomas Jefferson cup given each year since 1944 by the Alumnae Association to a senior who has distinguished herself during her four years at MWC by both academic achievement and outstanding service to the college.

The cup was presented at the Spring Convocation on April 26, by Mrs. L. J. Giles, Jr., President of the Association.

Miss Perinchief, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Perinchief of Mt. Holly, N.J., was a history major and in addition to maintaining a high scholastic average was president of Russell Dormitory during her senior year. She was also a member of Mortar Board, served as program chairman of the Leadership Conference Committee, and was named to Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities.

Graduation in June did not end Ann's career at MWC. She has returned this fall as administrative assistant in the office of Admissions, replacing Miss Judith Sutherland, who will do graduate work.

GIFT HONORS MRS. BUSHNELL

The Class of 1947, at its 20th reunion last June, presented Chancellor Simpson with a sum of money to be used in honor of Mrs. Charles Lake Bushnell, who was Dean of Women at MWC from 1922 to 1950.

The Chancellor has chosen as an appropriate gift an oil painting to be placed in the lobby of Bushnell Hall, which was named for her. Mrs. Betty Lou Embrey, a well-known local artist, has been commissioned to make the painting.

Each year at Homecoming the Alumnae Association sends Mrs. Bushnell a gift of red roses. Her letter of appreciation follows:

"Thoughts of you, your generosity and thoughtfulness have brought it to pass, that with the coming of June, your crimson messengers also come. And these glorious red roses did come just at noon, June third, when you, too, were at lunch. You were having the companionship of each other, but I had the companionship of the roses. They are to my heart's thinking, a something akin to an elixir of lasting qualities. Your roses must pass very soon, but their pictured beauty in my mind is for KEEPS. I am grateful to you for your just being the YOU of YOU. — May I hope that the Home-coming, for each of you, measured up to what you hoped for and that the hours of togetherness set your hearts rejoicing, leaving a perfect, fadeless memory.

Gratefully
Nina Bushnell"

Baltimore, Md. 21207

MIAMI: The chapter is finding it difficult to get a few girls together, they are so scattered. When they do get together they have a big time. During the summer they enjoyed a family picnic. After a dip in the pool and some rounds of bridge, everyone was ready for a hearty picnic meal. In October a bridge-luncheon is planned.

KING GEORGE: September — The Chapter members plan their fall activities together at this meeting.

FREDERICKSBURG: Oct. 30 — Annual fall banquet at the Fredericksburg Sheraton Inn, with Dean Alvey speaking. Dec. — Christmas party to be held at Spotswood. Fund raising projects will be selling stationery and candy to finance their gift to the Alumnae fund drive and to purchase a silver bowl given each year to the local member of the graduating class with the highest average.

PENINSULA: The Chapter has established a scholarship fund in memory of Lucille Wheeler, whose leadership in the Alumnae Association has taken so many forms over many years. Sept. — Tea for freshmen and MWC students. Oct. — Covered dish supper.

BOSTON AREA: It has 36 potential members but has problems getting them together. Sept. — Election of officers and planning meeting.

WESTCHESTER-FAIRFIELD: Sept. — Election of officers. Send-off tea at the home of Eliza Harlow Warren '59, in Scarsdale, N.Y.

BALTIMORE: Sept. — Luncheon with MWC freshmen and other students. Oct. — Fun and games night. Nov. — Plans are being made to get an outstanding speaker on a political subject.

CHAPTER AWARD WINNER

Julia Burns Jefferson was winner of the award given annually by the Fredericksburg Chapter of the Alumnae Association to the area senior with the highest scholastic average.

She is the daughter of the head of the Physics Department, Dr. G. Preston Burns and Mrs. Burns, and was married last December to John Norris Jefferson now a 2nd lieutenant in the Army.

During her four years at MWC Julia maintained a 3.3 average, her major being in physics. She was also active in a number of campus organizations, having served as historian of Chi Beta Chi, vice president of the Day Student Association and its representative to the Freshman Council, and was a member of the Student Education Association.

The award, an inscribed silver bowl, was presented at a covered dish dinner held by the Fredericksburg Chapter at Spotswood.

LUCILLE WHEELER IN MEMORIUM -

by E. Selater Montague

On July 15th the Great Ruler of this universe removed from our earthly presence Miss Lucille Wheeler, a distinguished, devoted and dedicated alumna of Mary Washington College.

Miss Wheeler was born in Albemarle County, Virginia, in 1902, and at an early age moved to Newport News. She graduated at Newport News High School in 1921.

She attended Mary Washington College for two years ending 1923, and completed her undergraduate work at Madison College. Her master's degree was earned at William and Mary College.

Miss Wheeler's life was devoted to the education of the youth of Virginia: first as a teacher, and then for approximately twenty years as principal of Woodrow Wilson Elementary School in Newport News.

Lucile Wheeler was a loyal believer in the inherent righteousness of the Confederate cause. She was an active member and an officer in Bethel Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy. Your author was impressed that high above every other floral display upon her casket, while being carried to her last resting place, waved the stars and bars.

Lucille Wheeler was an active member of Calvary Baptist Church of Newport News. Her faith was deep and her convictions profound.

While Miss Wheeler often tried to remain in the background, her talents were so outstanding and her enthusiasm for those principles in which she believed was so irrepressible that she soon found herself occupying a place of leadership in about every organization with which she was identified.

My first intimate acquaintance with Miss Wheeler began in 1958, with my appointment to the Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia, upon which she was then completing her first four-year term. During our drives between Hampton and Charlottesville, she would clearly and concisely analyze for my benefit the various problems confronting the Board, and the logic of her reasoning in presenting a solution was irrefutable.

Within the space allotted me, I can only bear testimony that Lucille Wheeler had a dynamic personality: she loved the Confederate States of America; she loved her Church, and except for her family, best and most of all she loved Mary Washington College. In her death Mary Washington College has lost one of its most loyal alumnae.

Gen. E. Schlater Montague, of Hampton, is head of the law firm of Montague and Montague and was formerly a member of the Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia.

The Peninsula Chapter of Mary Washington Alumnae Association has undertaken to establish a scholarship fund in memory of Lucille Wheeler. Contributions may be sent to Mrs. Vernon L. Brown of 24 Williamson Park Drive, Newport News.

HONOR ROLL of ANNUAL GIVERS

1966-67 Alumnae Fund

This Honor Roll is made up of the names of contributors to the 1966-67 Alumnae Fund. The names of those who have contributed since July 1, 1967, will appear next year on the 1967-68 Honor Roll. Although a number of alumnae sent more than one gift during the past fiscal year, space permits their names to be listed only once.

The names are arranged by classes. Percentages of class participation and dollar totals head each class list. These percentages are based upon the number of persons in a class who were solicited and the number in that class who contributed. Asterisk denotes gift of $25.00 or more.

We hope that you will notify the alumnae office if your name has been recorded incorrectly or omitted.

A DISTINGUISHED EDUCATOR RETIRES

When Flora McFaden Hill, the youngest member of the Class of 1914, received her diploma from FSTC she probably had no idea that she would spend 53 years in public school work as teacher, principal, and supervisor of elementary education. In 1925 she went to Colonial Heights, in Chesterfield County, as principal of its only school, a position she held for 37 years. She saw the school system grow from one building with 300 students and 10 teachers to four buildings with 3500 pupils and 140 teachers, 12 of the teachers being former pupils of hers.

In 1954, when a second school was opened in Colonial Heights, the first school where she had then been principal for 29 years was named the Flora M. Hill School. At that time she said: "I appreciate this honor very much. To me each brick in the building represents a child's personality. Just as all the bricks together make a strong structure, so the lives of all the students through the years form an enlightened citizenry of which I am extremely proud."

Miss Hill became supervisor of elementary education in July 1962, a position she held until her retirement on July 1, 1967. An English award honoring her retirement was established by the Colonial Heights Education Association, to be given annually to the outstanding high school English student in the graduating class. The first presentation was made on June 3.

Miss Hill was the recipient of many other gifts upon her retirement, including a color TV set, a book case, 4 volumes of R.E. Lee, The Death of a President, a silver tray from the City Council, three silver bowls, candlesticks and jewelry. Governor Godwin sent a letter of congratulations and appreciation.

In 1932 Miss Hill received a B.S. degree from MWC and she also did graduate work at Duke University. She is a member of several educational organizations, is on the Board of Directors of the American Cancer Society, and has long been active in the Colonial Heights Baptist Church. She is an honorary member of the Chamber of Commerce and the Oak Hill Garden Club.

She says, "Teaching has been a rewarding experience and I have great faith in our youth."

Ethel Nash, who was elected to the Board of Directors of the Alumnae Association last spring, took a vacation trip to Spain and Portugal during the summer.

HOMEcomings NEWS! The cold and rain of May changed to warmth and sunshine of June and we enjoyed a perfect weekend. I regret that more of our class were not present. Seven "regulars" came, namely: Edna Gibbs Hunter, Alice Warren Twiddy, Elsie Wood Rice, Josephine Jerrell White, Margaret Sayre Ransone, Ettienette Broaddus Moore and Ruth Carter Vellines.

Delighted to greet Pawling Nelms Sale and Charlotte Rice Weymouth this year. Charlotte plans to be present next year. Her husband, Judge Daniel R. Weymouth, retired from the 12th Judicial Circuit bench July 15, 1967 and began private law practice. Charlotte visited Pawling Nelms in Falls Church last summer and had a phone chat with Louise Henley Jones. Louise's granddaughter, who enters college this fall, visited the MWC campus and had an interview.

The girls enjoyed catching up on each other's activities. Edna hates to have her only daughter so far away at Rock Hill, South Carolina. She expected a visit from her family in July. Edna visited in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida last winter. Our sympathy to Edna in the death of her only brother in January.

Alice has improved from three hospital experiences. Her husband Calvin, now retired, takes good care of her. Margaret is teaching an English class to Negro women. She also enjoys her regular visits to two hospitals. After Homecoming Margaret visited her minister brother at Colonial Beach. On the way home she stopped to see Catherine Ware at Tappahannock, a teacher friend at Dunnsville and Mary Temple Theimer at Urbanna.

Ettienette attended the Federation of Garden Clubs at Roanoke as a delegate in May and found time to visit her old friend, Lillian Craig. Ettienette and I chat over the phone occasionally. She keeps busy, caring for two homes, city and country, and taking care of her granddaughter, Leia. Ettienette enjoys church and club work.

NEWS FROM RECENT LETTERS: Both of the Bunyan Y. Tyners sent messages of love. They have recovered from the automobile accident. Illness in both families is of great concern. Mr. Tyner sent us a photograph taken at the date of retirement. We wish they could have been with us.

Lillian Craig's second eye operation had to be postponed and set for June 20th, because of no housekeeper to stay with her sister Mabel, a heart patient. Have heard since that Lillian had a successful operation. So glad! While on a visit to Roanoke in July I called on Lillian, who looks well, is cheerful and full of fun as ever. We had a delightful chat about the old days at school.

Mary Temple Theimer and husband, retired, have moved from Chicago to Virginia. They spend much of their time in garden and yard; have found getting adjusted in a new home difficult. An appointment with a doctor prevented her from coming. Her address is Box 15, Urbanna 23175.

Anne Harris Schumacher could not be in Virginia this June but sent greetings.

Virginia Bolen, with a relative and teacher friend, were visiting relatives in Pennsylvania, New York state and Canada. They planned to attend the Expo 67 while away. She wants to plan for our 55th reunion. Hope so??

Marjorie Riker's nurse wrote. Marjorie remains the same and receives good attention at home from her nurses.

Sarah Gouldman McAllister has trouble with her larynx and has to guard her speech. We hope the doctor can help her. Sarah enjoys pleasant memories of past homecomings.

Mannie Torbert Kelly and husband celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in June. They have 23 descendants.

Alva Birmingham continues her real estate work part-time and manages her home. Alva lives in the same house, but the number has been changed to 3829 Gallows Road, Annandale, Va.

Nannie Page Burrus has poor eyesight so couldn't drive to Fredericksburg.

We express our deep sympathy to Beulah Detwiler Anderson upon the sudden death of her son-in-law, a director of the Gas Light Company in the Washington, D.C. area. He was only 47 years old. Beulah has not been well the past winter. She replied to my note of sympathy. She says her youngest grandson was graduated from High School in June and is working this summer.

Janet LaCrosse Hankin recently lost her sister. She replied with a lovely note to my message of sympathy. Our sympathy to all bereaved in our class.

A recent letter from Elsie Wood Rice told of visiting cousins in Springfield in June. Her grandson, who has completed a course in drafting, architecture and drawing at RPI, has been sent to Newport News to work on the "Kennedy."

PHONE CHATS WITH RICHMOND MEMBERS: Belmeair Linthicum Masters had a recent operation on both legs and was not traveling. Her only son is a CPA; lives with her. The daughter's family live near. There are three grandchildren. She likes her new home in the John Rolfe Apartments. She's occupied with welfare work and the Country Club — plans to take up horseback riding.

Elizabeth Ninde Bryan lives alone. A daughter studied three years at MWC. She is now married to an Episcopal minister and they reside in Alexandria. Elizabeth's two sons live in Richmond and Wilmington, Delaware.

Elizabeth Chenery Eley was planning for trips in June and July.

We claim two retired husbands, Calvin Twiddy and Mac Moore, who transported us here and there. I believe they enjoyed the weekend and want to come back. I am grateful to the Moores for my transportation to and from the college.

It was good to see Lucy Kennedy Boyle, Class 1913, and husband from their new home in Mineral, also Ann Latane Ware Bedinger of the same class.

Lorena Hoar Neill '31 and I usually renew friendships at Homecoming. We traveled together with the NEA on an Alaskan Tour. I note with regret the passing of Martha Herndon Lee. We recall her beauty and pleasing personality.

All of us are looking forward to the 1968 Homecoming. Plan to join the group.

Class of 1917 — The Golden Reunion Group

1st Row: Margaret White Bear; Nancy Eubank Rea; Gertrude White Irvine; Mrs. A.B. Chandler, widow of Dr. A.B. Chandler, 2nd President of the College; Mildred Brown Ragland; Ina Scott Orrell; Hilda Wright Allen; 2nd Row: Lydia Ellis Browne; Carrie Fox; Effie Berry Fuqua; Ilus Hutcheson Stebbins; Ada Nash Carlton; Elizabeth Haile Cloe; 3rd Row: Imogen Ellis Daniel, Calphurnia Bailey Cutchin; Lee Mitchie Behrendt; Bernice Hogan Towles, friend of class.

'17 Imogen Ellis Daniel (Mrs. Albert C.) Weems 22576

How we wished for each of you at our 50th Class Reunion in June '67. Twenty members had written that they were coming, but only fifteen showed up, namely Hilda Wright Allen, Margaret White Bear, Lillie Lee Michie Behrendt, Lyda Ellis Brown, Ada Nash Carlton, Ina Scott Orrell, Mildred Brown Ragland, Nancy Eubank Rea, Ilus Hutcheson Stebbins, Elizabeth Haile Cloe, Calphurnia Bailey Cutchin, Carrie Fox, Effie Berry Fuqua, Gertrude White Irvine, and Imogen Ellis Daniel.

Our table at the luncheon was decorated with a lovely flower arrangement of our class colors. Thanks to Lillie Michie for it! Your class agent made little trays, which carried out our class colors and flower, and presented them to each of the class at the luncheon. At our class meeting letters were read from those who could not attend; also letters from Mr. and Mrs. B.Y. Tyner expressing regrets at not being able to accept our invitation. Miss Grace Houchen, who taught Physical Education at the College from '16-'19, sent me a letter to the College. She said she was quite well and wished to be remembered to all the "girls" who attended the reunion, and whenever in Washington call her at 338-0930. I wrote her about the reunion and on Aug. 5 received a second letter. She said it was wonderful that our class plans to attend Homecoming each year and that she hoped to be there next year. Her letters, together with those of Mr. and Mrs. Tyner, will be placed in our Scrap Book which is being compiled by Effie Berry Fuqua, Cape Charles. If you didn't send pictures, you might still get them in by sending them to Effie.

We were so delighted that Mrs. A.B. Chandler was able to come out to see us, arriving just in time to get in our picture. She was unable to stay to the luncheon, but a number of our class visited her in the afternoon, taking our flower arrangement and a souvenir tray. Trays were also given to Chancellor G.C. Simpson and the Alumnae Office.

Abbie Ballard Brooks wrote she was sorry not to come to the reunion, but would at that time be taking a trip to the Middle East and the Scandinavian Countries. In '66 she took a Grand Circle Tour of Europe visiting England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Monaco, and France, and in '65 a conducted tour to Canada and the West Coast, including all way stations. She lost her husband in '63. Instead of sitting home and grieving she continued her church and club activities and taking nice trips.

Ruth Oliver Hines was sorry she couldn't come as her husband who is 70 yrs. old had a partial stroke Xmas, losing his voice, the sight of his right eye and use of his right hand to a great extent. She has a heart condition. One of her daughters and her husband have recently been appointed as missionaries to Trinidad.

Margaret Dix Brown could not come as her school would not close until June 9. She has been teaching since her children entered high school. All are married and she has five grandchildren. She expected to retire very quietly in June, but a number of luncheons, parties, etc. were given in her honor. She and husband plan to visit daughter and family in Cal. this summer, then go to Hawaii with them. Her son is a doctor, practicing in Williamsburg.

Lois Shuman Wray could not come, being so far away. She was in Virginia last fall. She lost her husband March of '66 after a brief illness. She enjoys club activities and her many friends are wonderful to her. Fallbrook is a pretty, hilly town with mountains in the distance 60 miles from San Diego and 75 miles from the Mexican border. She and husband used to take interesting trips to Mexico.

Eugenia Millner Ward was sorry not to be able to come. She is selling her home in Baltimore and moving to Bristol, Tenn. to be near her youngest sister.

Hermine Coghill Reames could not leave her husband who is recovering from a recent eye operation — his second since Sept. She dropped out of teaching for 16 yrs. and then went back and taught until she retired in '63.

Blanche Roberts Bolen had a previous trip planned at the time of the reunion. She lives alone, having lost her husband in '48, retired in '63 from work in Arlington Co., has one child, a girl, who has three sons and a daughter. She has two great grandchildren who live near her.

Nannie Goodman Francisco, who lives in Oregon, lost her husband in '49. She has a son and daughter and three grandchildren.

I couldn't close my news letter without telling you something about one of our members of whom we are very proud. Nancy Eubank Rea lives in N.C. and attended our reunion. She has ten children and 37 grand children, all living near her. She brought with her a picture of her immediate family — a splendid looking group. We think she deserves a special award.

Lucy Payne Link writes she is still living at her home place in Spotsylvania County and enjoying retirement since last July. She is kept busy substituting in H.S., participating in church activities such as SS. Supt. and Choir leader, and baby-sitting for her daughter's two sons. A son, living in Florida, whom she visits twice a year, has one son. In '63 she visited London and attended the Int. Congress of Home Economics and in '64 enjoyed a trip to Hawaii. In '65 she, her daughter and children, attended the World's Fair and in '66 she and daughter toured London, Switzerland, Austria, Italy and France.

'18 Nellie Hodgson Warner (Mrs. Walter S.) 4605 22nd St. N. Arlington 22207

Louise Milbourne Clarke (Mrs. C.H.)
9009 Cherokee Road
Richmond 23235

You girls who didn't go to Homecoming this year really missed a treat. Beatrice White Minter of Norfolk, Nellie Hodgson Warner of Arlington, Mary Ellen Burke Donald and Louise Milbourne Clarke of Richmond were there and enjoyed every minute of it. This is a very small percentage, and we must do better. Keep in mind that Alumnae Day 1968 will be our 50th anniversary and we are sure that if you attend it will be well worth your effort.

Word was received from Mabel Foster Ford who is now living on Cape Cod, Mass., a beautiful and most interesting place. She has three daughters, all married, one living in Cape Cod, one in Pennsylvania and one in California. She has seven grandchildren.

Early in 1968 you will receive a special notice of our 50th anniversary.

'24 Marion Weedon McDaniel 1109 Charles St. Fredericksburg 22401

The Class of '24 was conspicuously absent at Homecoming this year. I'm sure it wasn't their age that prevented them because I was there and saw many from classes earlier than ours. I can assure them they missed a gala weekend.

Please let me hear some news from all of you.

'25 No Agent

Miss Marianna Murray retired from the Hampton school system in June after 42 years of service, having been principal of Phoebus Elementary school for the past 25 years. A testimonial dinner honoring Miss Murray was held in April and was attended by many former pupils, school, city and state officials and business and civic leaders. The Phoebus PTA presented an oil painting of the beloved teacher to be placed in the school and her friends and school patrons gave her a brooch with commemorative inscriptions on each of its five gold leaves and set with seven diamonds, one for each 6 years of her teaching career.

Harriett Bridgewater retired in June. She lives in Charlottesville.

Ruth Jerrell Cannaday has taught for 18 years in Spotsylvania County and 16 years in Stafford County. She and her husband live on a farm.

Carmen Mejia Weiler (Mrs. H.)
10840 W. 1st St.,
Fairfax 22030

Georgia Overman Stewart's health has not permitted her to work for over two years. She is visiting her daughter in San Diego, Calif. Her oldest son, Ray, an officer in the U.S. Army, is in Vietnam. Her youngest son, George, is working with NASA in Washington.

Gertrude Brockley Smith, whose husband is a Funeral Director in Hampton, has two married children and four grandsons.

For 36 years Bertha Righter Butler (Mrs. Hurley O.) has been teaching in Newark, N.J., all except the first two years in Weequahic high school. She says she has taught every subject in the secretarial curriculum, but for the past few years has been teaching typing. Due to bad health she planned to go on furlough this year. Her husband is retired.

Claudia Wilkins Kitts has been teaching and doing guidance work at Colonial Beach for several years and her principal is Bernard Burchell, who was graduated from MWC in 1953.

'31 Ola Murray Martin (Mrs. Thomas C.)
Beaverdam 23015

Ruth Smith has retired after 39 years of teaching. She now lives in Alexandria and is taking care of her invalid sister.

Kaye Gallagher Spirito spent the summer in England.

Those attending Homecoming this year were: Ola Murray Martin, Class agent; Clara Boyd Wheeler; Lula Chiles Clarke; Dorothy L. Hart; and Lorena Hoar Neill.

'33 Mary E. Tarpley
5413 23rd St. No.
Arlington 22205

Greetings! It was a treat to join Maurine Lienhard Arnott, Julia Boston Bartha, Reba Collier Thorpe, Josephine Barefoot Lumpkin '34 and Ole Mae Hope for Homecoming '67.

Reba's beautiful daughter graduated, and Maurine's Jo was back from Iceland and with her. Julia's daughter, Mary Elizabeth Bartha Nix (Mrs. Clifford Earle) was also a member of the graduating class.

Class of 1932

Ritchie McAtee Gallagher, Margaret Kirkpatrick Thompson, Mary Dove Parnell

Contact me if you'd like addresses. And I'd like news of our Class of '33. Next June is our Reunion year. Please plan to return and see and learn more of the new Mary Washington and the girls of '33.

'34 Nellie May Stewart Pettit (Mrs. C.P.)
"Walbrook"
Fredericks Hall 23057

Marion Ells Sharp and her husband toured Europe by car this summer. Two of their sons are Peace Corps Volunteers and the other two are in college.

Isabelle Walker Spence and I had a wonderful visit together last summer at her beautiful home high in the N.C. mountains overlooking Lake James. She and Nelson have a new granddaughter, their second, born this spring in Houston. Isabelle sees Betsy Riggsby quite often. She lives in near-by Asheville — sorry I do not know her married name. What is it Betsy? Let me know so I can get your name on the mailing list!

I see Lewis Cosby often. She is editor of our county paper, The Central Virginian. Our deepest sympathy goes to her in the death of her mother this spring. Marie Helm Brent is still teaching algebra in Fauquier High School.

Lula Llewellyn House has moved from Warwick to 4 Club Terrace, Newport News. Her husband has retired from NASA. One of her twin daughters has her master's in psychology and works in Boston. The other one is married and lives in New York.

Josephine Griffith Kleiner continues working with the Cuban refugees in Miami. She and her husband, Murray, spend their summers in Maryland.

After a summer of quiet (?) country living, it's time to turn my thoughts from flowers, house and garden to making schedules for piano classes, choir rehearsals and monthly meetings of the Episcopal Church Women.

Want to hear more? Then write!

Mrs. Marie Krafft Kellegher of Richmond was recently appointed as head of the field office of the Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults to serve the Richmond-Petersburg area, according to Clarence W. Alston, President of the Richmond area chapter. Mrs. Kellegher was formerly with the Virginia Cancer Society and with the Richmond area chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Marie is a graduate of MWC and did graduate work at George Washington University.

Another alumna daughter enrolled at MWC this fall, Pamela Chiles Veague, daughter of Evelyn Chiles Veague (Mrs. John M., Jr.). Pamela is a transfer from Colby Junior College in New Landon, N.H. She was delighted with MWC when she visited it during spring vacation in March.

Grace E. Herr, of Madison College, and another faculty member toured the Scandinavian countries during the summer. It was great to hear from you, Grace.

Again I am acting as a poor substitute for Ethel Nelson Wetmore with news of the Class of '36. We were all grieved by the news of the death of Ethel's husband, Joseph (Bill), last winter. Bill was a well-known aerospace engineer with NASA at Langley Field. Ethel lives in Hampton.

It doesn't seem possible that a year has elapsed since I was writing about our 30th reunion. At that time I had intended to follow up the news in the Alumnae Bulletin with a class letter, but on re-reading the Alumnae notes, it seemed that most of the news had been covered and that a letter would be merely repetitive. Also the class members of '36 are not known as great correspondents, so there wasn't much to add.

Our class has been basking in the reflected glory of Clara Boyd Wheeler '31, sister of our Olivia "Bill" Wheeler McCallum, since she received the Distinguished Alumna Award in June. "Bill" and Mr. Wheeler attended the exercises. Also on hand was Ethel Wetmore.

"Bill" is not without fame herself, as was indicated by an article last winter in the Daily Press of Newport News. An extremely handsome picture of "Bill" accompanies an article on her distinguished career in education on three continents. She has taught in Japan and Thailand, has served as a member of a school board at Rochefort, France, and is now an instructor at the Warwick High School in Newport News. Her husband, Charles, a retired army colonel, is now an engineer with the ship yard at Newport News.

The very attractive young man seen standing by a missile in the August 11 issue of Time is the son of Ethel Nelson Wetmore. Warren is a reporter for Aviation Week and spent four weeks in Israel covering the war. That his war reporting did not affect his sense of humor is evidenced by the following bulletin he sent out: "Flash! Fairly anonymous Aviation and Space writer has photo in August 11 issue of Time. Notify relatives, neighbors and friends. Latest measurements show head not swelling too much."

Another teacher at the Warwick High School in Newport News is Barclay Sheaks, husband of

Edna Daniel Sheaks '42. Barclay is an artist whose paintings have been exhibited in state and national shows. He has exhibited several times at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, and his work may be seen at this Museum. One of his paintings is owned by the Medical Society of Virginia and others are owned by many schools and colleges.

Margaret Tyson Van Auken received her master's degree in education from U. Va. in August. She will fill the newly created post of elementary supervisor in Fredericksburg city schools.

After the last Alumnae News, a note came from Greta Hisey Kilmartin who has been living in Waverly for many years and is teaching in the local high school. Her daughter, Maria, attends Longwood College and last year was chosen "Miss Sussex County." She and her husband have another daughter aged 12 and a son who is a junior in high school.

A letter last spring from Harriet Bruce Rhodes contained news of several classmates. She mentions Elizabeth Rice Cooke of Kilmarnock, Mildred Ware Barta, married to a psychiatrist and living in Omaha, Neb.; and Mary Paul Phillips Lacy '35 who lives in California with her husband, a college professor. She has also heard from Emma Thorne "Thornie" Crockett Lively '38, and Frances Arthur Kellam '34 who were her roommates. Harriet's son Paul graduated from the Medical College of Virginia last year, and a daughter graduated from the University of North Carolina after two years at Agnes Scott.

I hope that this will spur others to report on their activities before the next Alumnae News. Send news about yourself, your children, grandchildren, etc. to me at the above address, or to Mrs. J.W. Wetmore, 107 Manteo Avenue, Hampton, Va. We don't want to be forgotten after 31 years!

The thirtieth reunion of the class of '37 brought nine of us together. We missed so many of you!

A telegram received the day of the reunion from Francis McLeod McIver said how much she wished to attend but was recovering from surgery. She has a 17-year-old son and an older son now with the Department of State.

Christine B. Dutton Harper has a son who has graduated from Christchurch Episcopal Prep School and is now a junior at the University of Richmond.

Of our class, perhaps the most regular "attender" of homecomings is Evelyn Riggs Ross. At present she is librarian at the new Sewells Point Elementary School in Norfolk which has all the latest equipment, "even wall to wall carpet." Her sister, Lila Riggs Graf '49, received her B.S. from Old Dominion College in June 1967. For several years she put college aside while taking care of her four daughters.

38 Helen Presley Voris (Mrs. J. Calvin)
5640 Old Lawyers Hill
Elk Ridge, Md. 21227

The coming school year will bring us to the realization and rude shock that we are all nearly a half-century old, though most of us are still thirty-eighters, and we have been graduated almost thirty years now.

The Voris's had a summer vacation in Canada. We went as far north as Churchill on the Hudson Bay, as far west as Brandon and as far south as Detroit, which we made in time to be curfewed for three days. We took in Expo, where our daughter Jenny was employed.

Emma Thorne Crockett (Mrs. Porter Lively) of Pulaski writes that they have a married daughter and a grandchild. Her husband suffered a stroke from which he was recuperating. They had attended the wedding of Harriet Bruce Rhode's daughter in Winchester.

Mildred Hodnett (Mrs. Ralph Going), who now lives at Spray, N.C., has two sons and a daughter. Abbie Bourke (Mrs. Numa Reid) '37 has two sons at VMI, a married daughter, and grandchildren.

Mary Inskeep (Mrs. J.B. Carpenter) of Culpeper visited the Liveley's in Pulaski on their return from South Carolina where they visited a married daughter.

Polly Daniels (Mrs. Ed. Temple) '35, who has been in Danville for a number of years, has moved to Richmond.

No news from Connecticut, Maine, N.Y., Pa., or other points for some time. Would like to get a fine crowd together for our thirtieth. Write soon.

Fellow classmates of '39,

Doris Stagg Pruden sent me notes she had received from two members of our class. Marion Timberlake Yobs writes she is a counselor at Huguenot High School in Chesterfield County. Marion is anxious to hear more news from '39 girls. So glad you wrote. I would like more news from the class, too. There is a note from Bernice Whipple Camp. Her husband's name is Norman. She has taught phys. ed. in W. Hartford, Conn. for 23 years. She vacationed in Fla. in Feb. '65 and stopped to see Mrs. Bushnell, who was on her way out to do volunteer work as a gray lady at a hospital in St. Petersburg. "She hasn't changed a bit — still a very remarkable, understanding and loveable lady," so says Marion.

Mary Helsabeck Townsend had a trip to the Holy Land last summer.

Elnora Overley Johnson and husband Jack have remodeled an old home on Washington Ave. in Fredericksburg. It got headlines and a picture in the Free Lance Star. Elnora is a member of the City Board of Education.

Arcelle Coulbourn Collier teaches at Powhatan. She has a son at VPI and one in high school.

Jewell Hallett Goffigon lives near Cape Charles and has one child.

I saw in the V.E.A. Journal that Elizabeth Alexander Howdershell is principal of Reedville Elementary School in Northumberland Co. Also, that Marjorie Horner Webber '42 is principal of Broadus Wood Elementary School in Albermarle County. Marjorie has received her master's from U. Va.

Sally Stoakley Clevenger with husband, Glenn, and daughter visited Gilda Oronoz de Perez in San Juan, Puerto Rico, in July, 1966. They also visited the Virgin Islands.

Glenna Powers Thomas has a daughter who is a sophomore at MWC.

Mary Williamson Bowles Hartley writes that she and hubby, Sam, have celebrated their 25th anniversary. One daughter is a senior at Meredith College and the other is in high school.

Concetta Mangus McKimmey (Mrs. Wayne F.) of Brunswick, Md., has been appointed to a four-year term on the Loudoun County, Md. school board. She was a high school teacher for a number of years and did graduate work at both Columbia and the U. of Md. The McKimmeys, who live on a farm between Rocks and Lovettsville, have 3 children.

I had a long chat with Frances Thomas Sledge this week. She is a grandmother (her son has a daughter). Her daughter teaches in Hampton. Frances teaches 5th grade at Churchland Academy near Portsmouth. She will get a degree in June '68 from Old Dominion College in Norfolk. Husband Charles is a ham operator by hobby

A friendship came about, through this hobby, with a family in British Honduras. The Sledge's have been invited to spend next Christmas with the family and they will go on to Guatemala from there. Sounds great!

Jeanne Murphy Bisese is a school nurse in the Portsmouth School System. She has a son in Vietnam.

Dolly Falconer McGuirt's daughter, Gale, received her B.A. degree this year and is teaching in the Norfolk Public School System. Sarah Ann Shield Steele's daughter married this summer.

Dorothy Diehl Denton and husband Bob have been to the Bahamas and Canada this year besides their regular visits to Florida to see Bob's parents.

Our son received his degree in Engineering in June '66. Yours truly has lived through two weddings within 3 months of each other — daughter's and son's. Hubby and I travel a lot now. We spent 2 weeks traveling in Canada (One at Expo 67), spent Easter in Fla. with our daughter, and will spend Christmas with her in Corpus Christi, Tex.

I am looking forward to a visit from June Mankin Fields '37, from Stockton, Calif. in August. Hope to get some of the '39 girls together while she is here. Perhaps I'll have more news by the next issue. Won't you help me by writing about yourself and the '39 girls with whom you have kept in touch?

'40 Rosella Tuck Davidson (Mrs. Paul W.)
1514 Bayside Lane

Mary Estes Irby's daughter was married August 26. She and her husband returned to college in Macon — he to Mercer and Mary Ellen to Dudley Hughes. The Irby's son received the Citizenship Award at VMI and will be attending Law School at W & L this fall and teaching Civil Engineering at VMI.

Jane Hatcher Major is President of the Women's Auxiliary to the Richmond Dental Society.

Emma Ziegler Brown's son attended the University of Edinburgh last summer. Ned is a fourth year man at UVa this fall and is on the Honors Program, a member of the Raven Society, Student Council, etc. Sounds like Emma's son! Emma reports that the GFWC tour to Europe in May was wonderful. They were entertained at some of the embassies and in private homes. Hope some of the rest of us can make their next tour.

Elizabeth "Wiz" Hall Lundy says that her husband, who is the Methodist Bishop of Malaysia, must conduct conferences in four languages — English, Mandarin Chinese, Iban and Foo-chaw Chinese. He uses an interpreter for the latter two. Bishop and Mrs. Lundy have 3 children, Robert Fieldin, Jr. 19, Francis 15, and Carolyn Elisa 12, who attend the Singapore American School.

I flew to Paris the end of March to catch a visit with my brother before he moved back to the States. Our tour of the provinces from Normandy to Provencal brought back memories of French geography and history learned under Mrs. Bolling . . . a charming and memorable teacher. From Paris I flew to Berlin for four days and on to London and Gloucestershire for a visit with friends in the heart of the Cotswolds. (The oldest part of the house they lived in was built in Elizabethan times — the rest was Georgian and early Victorian). I loved all the places I visited — but England — even the sun seemed to say "welcome home!"

Send in news. Otherwise I shall have to continue to rely on what I know of the happenings of the Richmond wing of our class.

Bedford, Mass. 01730

Our 25th reunion was a real success as far as attendance goes. I'm so sorry I had to rush off just as many of you were arriving. Our oldest son was graduating from St. Michael's College in Vermont the next day and I had to fly back to Boston in time to make connections for Vermont; couldn't even wait for the picture. I did meet some of the husbands who attended this year.

I won't try to list all the girls who attended as names are with the picture. Thanks so much for the note, Mary Pride Hunninghake. Love hearing from you. I will write soon. All of you please write.

While camping in Maine we went to Wilton to see Jeanette "Jay" Field Freeman, and had a very nice chat. Jay had just returned from California where her oldest son took his master's at Stanford and was married shortly afterwards. She has two high-school-aged sons, too. Jay attended MWC for two years, then graduated from the U. of New Hampshire. Her husband died suddenly in 1962. It is such fun to see those we have "sorta lost track of." If you're planning a trip write to me. I'll send you the names of MWCers along your route.

One of the North Carolinian debutantes this past summer was Patricia Minges, daughter of Dr. & Mrs. Ray Minges (Virginia Waring). After the usual gala Festivities, a breakfast was given.

One of the hostesses was Patricia's aunt, Martha Minges Bass.

Ruth Conover Sutter and husband Allan came for the reunion. They now live in Arlington, after having travelled here, there and everywhere with the Marines. Allan retired as a Col. in '64 and is now resources analyst with NASA. They have two sons, one is the USAF and the other in H.S.

Betty Collins Burke and husband Hugh live in Vienna. Betty is an elementary school principal. She received her master's in elem. ed. at American U. in '64. In fact the whole Burke family, almost, is in college. Betty and Hugh have a daughter, now married, who graduated from MWC in '65; another daughter who entered MWC in fall of '67; a son who graduated from Methodist College in '67 and a son who is a student at William & Mary.

Ruth Capen Hartmann and Bill were also at the reunion. Ruth is now working as a Professional Consultant for Dunham-Luttman. They have two daughters and live in Somerville, N.J.

Will try to give a brief biography of a few girls in each News. In the meantime please write. There are a few directories left if anyone wants one.

25th ANNIVERSARY YEAR

This is the year about which we have mixed emotions; we hate to tell our age, but love to remember our anniversary and murmur a sincere thank you to MWC. Make your plans now to be with us June 1-2, 1968!

It was wonderful to have 4 of us at Homecoming, 1967. Mamie Stahle Via, Dorabelle Forrest Cox, Evelyn Sheads Appleton and I had a grand time talking and visiting. None of us looks a day older! Mamie and Dorabelle are going to contact 43ers in the Peninsula area and Evelyn is working in the Alexandria — Arlington area. I hope each of you will write roommates and suitemates and "y'all come".

Now for the news from you. I had a wonderful letter from Flora Copenhaver DeBusk saying she plans to attend our Reunion in June. She sent me Lee Hall Archer's address. Lee responded to my letter expressing her regrets for our reunion; she is teaching speech and English at East Tennessee State U., Johnson City, Tenn. and will be having exams at that time. She and her husband, Hunt (VPI man) went to Johnson City in 1949. They have two children, Susie 16 and Lewis 10.

From Charlotte, N.C. comes a catch-up letter from Elizabeth Wilburn Parker, formerly of Roanoke. She worked in Roanoke, married, moved to Pittsburg and then to Charlotte. She has continued to work in secretarial positions. The Parkers recently had a vacation in Hawaii which was wonderful. Word has been received from Harriet Tyler Miller saying that she is working on her M.A. for fun, also to meet teaching requirements for Indiana. Ann Bolling Clarke Mann married Bill (VPI '40) and they have a daughter Jane, married, and a medical secretary at U. Va. in Charlottesville. They have 2 sons — Jimmy, a freshman at Emory and Henry, and Jeff, a freshman in high school.

Spring brought a most interesting letter from Marguerite Pugh Pittard (Clarksville) who waited until now to launch her career — social worker in Halifax Co. She has also won several golf trophies. Her husband, Bob, is a civil engineer with Va. Highway Dept. and they have a 19-year-old son Chris, a sophomore at Elon College (N.C.) and a 17-year-old daughter Connie, a junior in high school. Both youngsters have won many trophies in horse shows around the state.

I was delighted to hear from Margaret Moran Logan. Peg and I were such good friends at MWC! She sent Christmas letters 65 and 66 and Summer Itinerary - 67. She and Dick, a high school counselor at Bolsa Grande High School, have 8 youngsters and live in Garden City, Cal. There are 2 daughters 3 and 17 and 5 boys from 6 to 16 years. This summer they made a cross country camping tour to Warren, Ohio (Her former home) and then through Canada, Boston, N.Y., Washington, Fredericksburg and Williamsburg. Peg says, "At last I'm going to be able to show the youngsters some of the things I remember."

PLEASE be sure to send a contribution - ANY size — to the Alumnae Fund this Anniversary Year. We want to be at the top of Percentage Participating. Last year we were 10th with 18.1% on May 18. We had 28 of 154 43ers contributing in '67.

PLEASE return your questionnaires if you have not. It is the only way for us to get information on many of you. Can you help locate Elizabeth Taylor Tazewell, Sallie Snead McBroom, Judith Preminger Rappaport, Dorothy Barrett, Jane Calhoun, Doris "Johnny" Clements, Martha Driscoll Price, Jean Hopkins, Charlotte Hawthorne or Anne Mason? We have recently received addresses for Claire Moore Kelly and Sally Coleman Snead.

Thanks for listening, and send news of you and others.

'45 Phyllis Pemberton Perkins (Mrs. A.W.)
Box 6, Guilford, Maine 04443

Do send more news so that we can be represented in each issue!

Ruth Smith Hargrave is working part-time as nutritionist for a mental retardation project. Christine Brauer Krausse represented MWC at the inauguration of Athens College's new president in May in Athens, Alabama.

Jean Keener Cence, who lives in Lancaster, Pa., worked as a secretary before marriage — has two daughters. She returned to school to acquire teaching credits; has taught Kindergarten and hopes to resume it in the future.

Priscilla Wilson Ashton transferred to Cornell U. in 1943. She has been a high school teacher, magazine editorial assistant, librarian and graduate student. Now substituting as a teacher, she is wife and the mother of 1 son and 2 daughters. She lives in Silver Spring, Maryland.

Lura Korth Gillis teaches junior high home ec. in Springfield. Her daughter is a junior at MWC.

Frances Tracy '44, working at Surucucu Mission Station in Brazil, spends much of her time among the primitive Aikamtehi Indian tribes trying to learn their unwritten language so that it may be recorded and they may be taught to read and write. Equipped with a tape recorder and native guides, she goes into their villages and shares their lives and wins their confidence and friendship.

Hilda Parks Cohen is still making news as the busy wife of theatrical producer Alexander H. Cohen and planning their projected year's trip around the world.

This summer took the Perkins family to Expo 67. Henny Hoylman Parsons '44, and family spent 5 weeks here at Whetstone across the lake.

'46 Carolyn Rohr Huebner (Mrs. J.P.)
2100 S. Pierce St., Arlington 22202

We were fortunate in having three (known) '46 graduates at the 1967 Homecoming. Jene Haley Allen, Newport News, and Mary Janes Fisher, Baltimore, were on the registration list; yours truly and her husband attended the lovely buffet dinner Saturday evening at Chancellor and Mrs. Grellet Simpson's home. At that time we had a nice chat with Dr. Hoye whom you remember was a member of the physical education department during a few of the years when we were there. At that time she was Miss Hoye.

Muriel Duncan Arey, Montverde, Florida, called me while she was visiting in Arlington this spring. Muriel and her husband were planning a trip to Europe or Hawaii, depending on the Middle East situation. Congratulations for announcing a new granddaughter and grandson!

Frances Adair Edmonson and her husband are now living in Georgia; her husband is in the Air Force. They have 3 sons.

Janice Worsley Mayberry, Rocky Mount, N.C., writes that Nora Russell Harrell, widow, of Wake Forest, N.C., married Dr. Carl W. Dickens, a dentist. Nora had two children, both of whom are completing their secondary education. We send her our best wishes.

Celeste Jones, Richmond, is principal at Madison Elementary School where the six grade classes have celebrated graduation with sleep-ins at Madison School, parents and school board approving, of course.

Frances L. Holsclaw, of Washington, D.C., has been elected 1967-68 president of the Sunday Evening Club for Single Adults of the National Presbyterian Church.

Celene Young Cornette, Hampton, has a daughter, Susan Young, who is a freshman at Mary Washington this year, and she loves it.

The winter issue of the Alumnae News will be mailed about January 30, and my deadline for sending news to the office is December 5; please let me hear from you before then.

'47 Betty Hutchinson Gwathmey (Mrs. R.E.) "The Vineyard"
Bruington 23023

The reunion was such fun for 42 of the class of '47 as we celebrated our 20th — see our reunion picture and names of those present. Barbara Rudd Blum, "Liz" Krebbs, June Ashton Steppe, Louise Carwile Hancock, Marguerite Marshall Smith, Ruth Kirkwood Bumgardner, Doris Lipold Burns, Reed Kilduff Simmons, and Lavina Godwin Mumford were there but not present when the picture was taken.

June Ashton Steppe, Dahlgren, was elected to the Nomination-Election Committee.

Having served as class agent for five years, I offered my resignation, feeling that a change in class agent from time to time will bring news from more girls. Jean A. Bell of Suffolk was elected by the group. Be sure to send news to her for she can share only what she receives. Jean's street address is 112 St. James Avenue, Suffolk, 23434.

I have attempted to use some from each of the 70 odd replies to the letter sent out before Homecoming. The replies were so interesting and the pictures grand. We shared these at Homecoming and after I have put all in order the book of letters and pictures will be sent to the Alumnae office. If ever you are at MWC, ask for it so you can see what we are doing.

We made a gift of $67.00 to Mary Washington in honor of Mrs. Bushnell. Mrs. Bushnell was spoken of often and we thought of her "in passing". (The first evening Mrs. Bushnell spoke in our class at MWC she used the phrase "... and I thought of you in passing.")

Where shall I begin?

Lois Joyce Anderson is Director of Promotion Broadcasting and Film Committee, National Council of the Churches of Christ, and lives in New York City.

Lucy Anderson Bannister (Robert G.) lives in Wilmington, Delaware. Her husband is Senior Patent Chemist for E.I. DuPont de Nemours. They have four children ages 10-1.

Mary Ellen Baxter Cummings (E.H.), leads a busy life in Prince George, Virginia. They have two sons. Mary Ellen plays the organ in her church.

Julia Blosser Grandle (James A.), received her MA Degree from Madison College in 1963 and is now a full time teacher. Their son, Arthur, graduated from UVa in June. Bob finished his 2nd year at UVa and third son, Chris, is in high school. Her husband, Jimmy, is in the poultry business at Harrisonburg.

Jean Boyce Carleton (Frederick S.) is a busy mother of two teenage daughters, Jan and Martha. Her husband is an Investment Banker at Blyth and Co., New York City.

Adelaide "Berry" Brall Aims (Frank L., Jr.) is a Creative Consultant TV writer. The NBC show "Snap Judgement" is her most recent project. Frank, Berry, and daughter Wendy Corine, age 10, live in Freeport, N.Y.

Anna Brauer Oxenham and lawyer husband, Thomas H., Jr., live in Richmond. They have 3 daughters and 2 sons. Beth, the oldest, just finished her first year at Queens College.

Phyllis H. Bell is wife of the Rev. Percy F. Smith (Methodist) in New London, Conn. They have 2 daughters, Deborah Lee 16, and Joanne Elizabeth 13.

Joan Briggs Glaser (Donald W., Sr.) is wife of a banker and mother of three — Nancy, 14; Donald, Jr., 12; and Susan Janet, 2 1/2. Their home is in Eastchester, N.Y.

Nora Bryant Monroe (Joseph Edmunds) lives in Oklahoma City. Her husband is an engineer with Western Electric. They have two children, Elizabeth Lee, 7, and Joseph E., Jr., 4.

Jeanne Cather Livi (Rice W., Jr.) lives in Berryville, Va.

Gloria Conte Keith (John W., Jr.) is wife of a Richmond lawyer and mother of two girls ages 14 and 13. Gloria is an avid tennis player. She entertained Betty Cox Beale, Betty Proctor Groseclose, Lila Kinsey Sanders and me at Willow Oaks Country Club in April when we met to make plans for the Reunion. We had such fun together!

Phyllis J. Derigon is supervisor of Policy Change Div., Phoenix Mutual Life Ins. Co., Hartford, Conn.

Marian Dewing Fletcher is Director of Christian Education in Niles, Mich.

Patricia Draz Glaser (Warren D.) works part time in a travel agency in Hartsdale, N.Y. Pat and Warren have 2 girls ages 17 and 7, 2 boys ages 16 and 13. Pat and Joan Briggs Glaser are sisters-in-law.

More in next issue!

West Newton, Mass. 02165

I waited to write this until we were in Montreal, in the wild hope that I might see one of you here at Expo. What gave rise to this hope was a happy surprise visit from Muriel Harmon Lake in July, when she and Kemper and their 3 children stopped in Boston on their way home from Expo. They also stopped farther south at MWC to show Susan and Patricia the campus. Muriel says it is still growing, with more beautiful dorms and buildings. We must all work toward getting back for our twentieth next June!

I have heard that Betty Bullis White and her family went to Expo, too. They live now in Fernandina Beach, Fla.

Had such a nice letter from Mary Holland Coolidge with pictures of her 3 beautiful girls. She talked with Betty Bowles Hasp recently in Roanoke. Betty is teaching French and her oldest son, Billy, is entering the U. Va. in the fall.

Class of 1947

After 3 years in Germany, Evelyn Sweet Vance is living in Washington, D.C. with her husband and 2 daughters. Nancy Cooley Gallagher and her husband, who is a lawyer, are also in Washington.

Miriam "Whickey" Whitley Knight is district director of Girl Scouts and secretary for community music in Lewisburg, W. Va.

Elizabeth Kessler Lee of Pontiac, Ill., her husband and 3 children, Bobby, David and Kathy, visited MWC in June and were amazed to see all the new buildings. Beth was MWC's representative to the inauguration of the new president of Roosevelt University in Chicago in April.

Girls — the next deadline for news is Dec. 5 — way before you normally get out your Christmas cards. Won't you please all write me before then? If you write me your news directly it will save the Alumnae Office the trouble of forwarding it!

In all these thousands of faces at Expo I have not seen a familiar one from out of the MWC past!

Joan Duncan Lowe writes news of several years. She worked for 13 years at the Agricultural Library of the University of Florida. She then returned to school, receiving her master's in Education in 1965. Joan now enjoys being a librarian in an elementary school. She has a son, 13. Her husband is head of the social studies dept. at Gainesville High School. They have just moved into a new home.

Lucille Pope Midyette lives in Ashland with her husband and three children. She has a kindergarten in her home.

Irvin "Kitten" Whitlow Westbrook recommends the two-family system. She has two, 14 and 11, and two, 4 and 1. *Hilda Jones Blake*more, her husband and two boys visit with the Westbrooks now and then. Betty Gilmer Coyner had a long telephone talk with Kitten recently. Her husband has a Ph.D. and teaches at Hampden-Sidney. Mary Lou Morgan Glossbrenner got together for a picnic with Hilda and Betty and their families.

Christine Dunnivant Ridgewell had supper with Kitten. She is an advisor at a high school in Norfolk and took a course at R.P.I.

Jean Abenschein Vass is owner and director of a Community Day School in South Arlington. She also enjoys acting in the community theatre.

More Fun With Spanish by Lee Pelham Cooper, her fifth book in a language series for children, was published recently by Little, Brown & Co. Last summer she accompanied a group of high school students to France for six weeks of study under the Foreign Language League School's program. They spent half the period in Versailles, site of one of the largest royal palaces in the world, and the rest at Leysin in Switzerland.

Elizabeth Fischer Gore is off again. She stopped by the Alumnae Office just prior to leaving for Greece where her husband will be with the Public Health Service.

Jane Yeatman Spangler and family have moved to Wyomissing, Pa., where her husband is with Polymer Corporation. She is looking forward to her first year with all children in school.

Delma George turned up in my "own back yard." She is presently assigned as an Army Major at Fort Holabird, Md. (Confidentially, that is where they do their secret service work.) Delma has served in the Army for 20 years now and has traveled from Fort Lee to Germany, France, South Pacific, New Guinea and the Philippines. She visited Italy, Spain, Holland and Switzerland, too. In 1962 she adopted her sister's orphaned son and is now putting him through college. She is a very busy woman.

Margaret Elliott Sweeney and family spent their vacation visiting in Montana. They also enjoyed Yellowstone Park and Glacier National Park.

Phyllis Bingham McGaha enjoyed a vacation in Ireland, Scotland, England, Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

Elinor Platt Levy spent her vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Florida with a pool at the back door and the ocean a few yards away. She and her family also are visiting Cape Cod on business. Ellie's husband is entering his fifth year as rector of an Episcopal Church. Ellie keeps busy all year with singing in adult choir, pianist for children's choir, altar guild, etc.

Anne McCaskill Libis enjoyed three weeks' camping with a tent trailer in various parts of New Hampshire.

Dear 49ers — if you won't tell me about your vacations, how about flooding the next issue with news of what your husbands do?

Well, I guess if I don't get some more news by the next deadline — Dec. 5 — the 1950 section of this column will be no more. It's pretty discouraging to write and to receive no response. I'm sure most of you enjoy keeping up to date with your classmates, but how about you taking out a few minutes to write about yourself. Some of you have been very faithful and I thank you.

Our family is vacationing now (August) in Cape Cod and it's been a very wet summer. Quite a change after 2 years of drought. We are planning before the summer is over to go to Nantucket for a few days and also travel up to Expo 67. Our big news is that we are hopefully anticipating another member of the family in December. So you see I'll be busy — it'll be up to you to keep me informed.

Had a nice letter from Carol Bailey Miller in Leesburg with pictures of their lovely new home. Says she doesn't mind the commuting to work and Bill has been made assistant new car sales manager which gives him more time off. Carol still officiates at many horse shows and flew to Lexington, Kentucky, to do one in May — her first trip to "Blue Grass" country; also judged a show in Lexington, Va. where she had a brief chat with Ann "Eley" Everett Mish '47.

Charlotte Leonard Wilder was in Dallas, Texas, in March attending a Personnel and Guidance Convention and she is now employed on a 12-month basis by her school system. Roland has accepted a job with the Internal Revenue Service in the Alcoholic Lab. The twins and Connie are fine.

News from Barbara Huber Bohmann tells us that after 3 1/2 years in Italy they are being transferred by Jerry's company to Lucerne, Switzerland. They were sailing to the U.S. in June on the Michelangelo for a month's home leave to be spent at Pt. Pleasant, N.J. Then they were to fly directly to Switzerland.

Miriam Sollows Wieland and family motored to Fremont, Nebraska to visit Earl's parents. They were to finish off their vacation with a few days at the Jersey shore.

One of the nice things about summer vacation is that you do see old friends. But summer is over now, and we're back to the old routine.

While having dinner at our favorite seafood restaurant this summer, I saw Brooke Woods. This was a most pleasant surprise; her plans for the fall were incomplete. Keep us posted, Brooke.

Managed to get by to see Mary "Andy" Puryear Phillips while on vacation at Va. Beach. We had a delightful visit with her and Woody. Andy stays busy with teaching and volunteer work at the local hospital. She and Woody raise orchids and baskets. The orchids are beautiful and my children were fascinated with the dogs.

Don't you love people that drop by unannounced! That is what we did to Lucy Smith Cardwell while in Lynchburg. We had a grand time and hope that they weren't too late for their dinner engagement. The Cardwells had been to Expo 67 this summer. How many others of you went?

Anne Taylor Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.Y. Taylor, was selected to attend special National Defense Education Act Language Institute, sponsored by U. of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill and at El Escorial, Spain, June 19-August 18. Frequent field trips were to be taken while in Spain.

Frances Chesson LaCamera writes from St. Petersburg, Fla. that they have added two more children since last we heard. The total is four now — one girl, Kathleen, 10, and three boys, David 9, Robert 4, and Dick 2 1/2.

Alma Lorane Layne received her master of education degree from the University of Virginia in 1966 and is presently employed by the Henrico County Education Department. She and Helen Anderson Lucas '34 are teaching at Maude Trevvett School.

Anne Zirpel Josefy is still in Midland, Texas. She and John have five children aged from 3 to 12. She wonders if any MWC alumnae are anywhere in the area around Midland. They are located in west Texas, 250 miles west of Ft. Worth, and about 50 miles from the New Mexico border. Would love to hear from any that pass that way.

Mary Jane Park Barrett has written to let us know about the outstanding work done by Frances Carter Dugger, serving as the Faculty Chairman of the self-study program while teaching a 3-4 combination class. We "stay at home" mothers do appreciate the efforts of the hard working teachers that our children come in contact with.

Barbara Davis Clark visited the MWC campus in August. Her husband teaches economics at the U. of Maine.

Our 15th reunion was wonderful for those eleven who came. Our only regret was that more could not be present. Let's all plan now to try for the 20th, none too prematurely. Our sincere appreciation to the work of Nancy Stump Motley and Nancy Moxley Stone as class agents these past five years. With all your cooperation I hope that I, too, can keep us well informed.

Nancy Moxley Stone could not get to Homecoming due to her husband's business trip to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. necessitating too long a trip back to Fredericksburg for Nancy. Nancy Stump Motley, as vivacious as ever, has 2 girls and 2 boys. Ken is an architect in Roanoke. Nancy hopes to return to school soon to renew her teaching certificate.

Charlotte Adams Wilson, looking as if not a day had passed since June '52, has 3 attractive children and is now teaching kindergarten.

Gwen Amory Cumming from Hampton, as is Charlotte, was full of news. Bob is a civil engineer and they have 2 boys and 2 girls, the youngest then just 5 months old. Gwen told us that Betty Montgomery Handy is now living in Powhatan and that Ann Gaines Louisell's husband is in Vietnam. They have a new daughter, born last spring, and another son and daughter. Ann is living in Springfield.

Mildred Kolarik Bara has two lovely girls, ages 5 and 8. Her husband is an advertising manager for a shoe company. Mildred told us that Sarah Jane Huston Lilja sent her regards. Pat was visiting her former home in Dayton, Ohio, and was unable to join us. She has 3 daughters and is teaching kindergarten.

Other news was gathered of Mary Mapp Edmonds Bradford who is teaching school and whose husband, with the Army, was just preparing to leave for Vietnam. Phyllis Webb Pegram, in Bassett, has 5 children. John is personnel manager for Stanley Furniture Co. Much comment was made on the lack of correspondence from Rita Morgan and we hope this statement will spur her into a letter. We heard that Rita has been living in Arlington, teaching school and would marry in late summer, moving to Newport News. Nancy Miller Sprague has 5 children and is living in Los Angeles, California, where her husband is a radiologist.

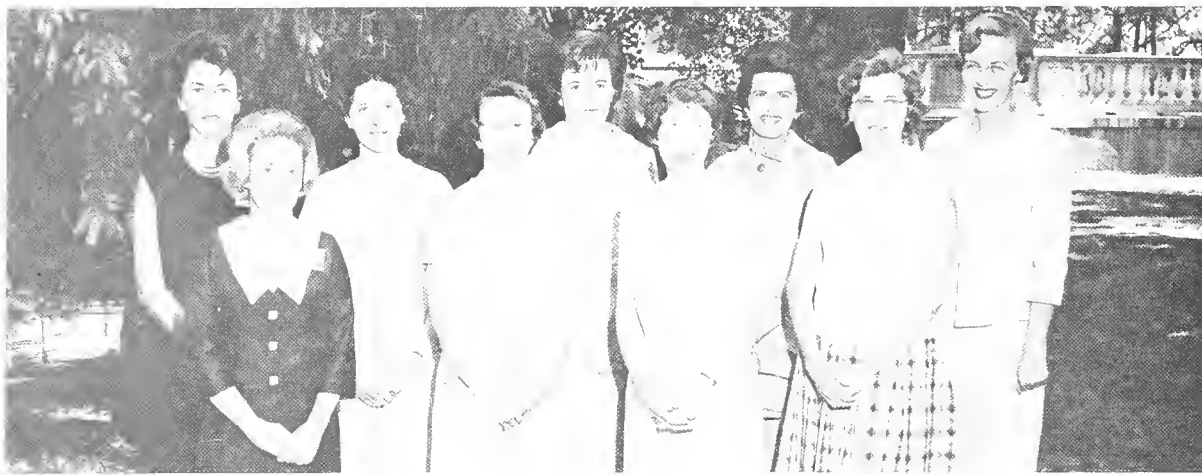

Claire Sindlinger Degroot has 4 children now. Her husband's arrival home from Vietnam coincided with the reunion, a good reason for Claire's absence.

Ann Clary came from Washington D.C. After teaching school for 2 years and a 7-year term as librarian for the American National Red Cross she has just been appointed chief librarian for the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Claire Sims Braun arrived from Morris Plains, N.J. She has 2 girls, 13 and 9, and a boy 11. Claire is a therapeutic dietician at the Greystone, New Jersey, State Hospital.

Elizabeth Stevens Mills keeps busy in Fairfax with her four — 2 boys, 11 and 7, and 2 girls, 5 and 3. Libby just completed 3 years as a den mother and expressed the views of many of us when she said she didn't write the class agent too often as her life didn't sound as exciting as some — so all you den mothers and Sunday school teachers come on and keep the news coming in since we have no other way to keep up with each other on so broad a scale.

Also at Homecoming was Maryanne Heatwole Cox who has been in Fredericksburg 9 years and lives adjacent to MWC and has 6 children.

Mildred "Jerry" Foley Crouch came from McLean. She and Ted have 4 girls, 13, 12, 3 and 1, and a boy 11. Jerry is active outside their home with women's church work and girl scouting.

Elizabeth Weatherford Matthews came from Vernon Hill. Her husband is director of Federal Projects in the Halifax County Schools. Elizabeth got her M.A. at W&M in American History. They have an 8-year-old son. At present Elizabeth is busy with PTA and church activities.

For those of you who did not see a recent issue of Southern Living magazine there was a write up of "outstanding women" which included Anne Lee Ceglis of Anne Lee Ceglis and Co., Importers. The article notes that Anne is now doing a terrific business along the East Coast in importing. Anne did graduate work in New York at Julliard and Columbia after MWC, was fashion editor for the Newport News Daily Press and women's director of a Newport News radio station where she won an Associated Press Broadcasting Award in 1954.

Jacqueline Bobbin Blanchet wrote from Morris Plains, N.J. that she hoped to attend Homecoming but was unable to make it due to babysitter problems and husband Alex's business plans.

Bill and Jessie Jerdone "Jerry" Ewell Mendez have 3 children and are now settled in Murrysville, Pa.

News has been received from Virginia Donald Ennis who moved from New York to London with husband, F. Beaven Ennis ('52 graduate of U.Va.) and four sons in December, '65.

Correction please on an incorrect address previously given for Evelyn DeMott Breeden. Evelyn is not in New Jersey but in Virginia Beach. Ray is manager of Mutual of New York Life Insurance Co. and Evelyn writes that life at the seashore is a constant delight.

From a news clipping comes word of Betty Jefferson Blaisdell of Annandale having been elected vice-president of the English Teacher's Association of Northern Virginia. She is chairman of the English Department of Fairfax High School.

While passing through Richmond this summer I happened to run into Margaret Leftwich Hallatt and had a short talk with her.

Susan Hutcheson Jurgens of Louisa, where John is a pharmacist, has 2 girls, ages 11 and

7. Susan has promised to help me with a rather frightening group of names and out-of-date addresses. Would you, reading this issue of Alumnae News with any interest or hunger for news of friends past (and I know all of you do), take a minute from a busy day and drop Susan or me a postcard with news of yourself and friends and current addresses? Any recent scarcity of class news was not the fault of the two Nancys but of all the rest of us who thought our news might not be very enlightening to others. So hurry now — before the postal rates rise again!

'53 Nell McCoy Savopoulos (Mrs. M.D.)
24 Broadway
Florham Park, N.J. 07932

Beverley Anne Carmack Wall lives in Richmond, has two daughters 12 and 8. Her husband is with State-Wide Insurance, and Anne is working full-time for Hartford Insurance. She also takes courses at RPI, has a troop of Cadette Scouts and still enjoys horseback riding. Anne wrote that Genevieve Suits Lasker was living in Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas. Her husband returned last fall from Vietnam. They have 3 children. Anne sees Barbara Johnson Brandis and Mary Page Roache Winberg occasionally. Dot Overton Robertson '51 lives near Anne and is a close friend.

Betty Cranford Besley's husband is proprietor of the Belvedere Beach Hotel on the Potomac near Fredericksburg. She has two children by a former marriage, and taught in Fairfax County until this year.

Connie Bennett Elliott and Gene have four children and are now living in Glassboro, N.J. Gene is an Assistant Professor at Glassboro State and Connie teaches music in the elementary school. Sally Hammett Davis is a neighbor of Connie's. Connie wrote that Joan Jeffords Werner and Bob are living in South Bend, Ind. now.

Peggy Jo Ellis writes that she gets together frequently with Ann DeWitt Harvey in Boston. Ann lives in Sudbury, Mass. Peggy Jo also sees Martha Gilbert Smith, who lives in Lexington, Mass., has two daughters.

Irene Maliaros Mathas's husband Tim is the National Beer and Colt wholesaler in the Tidewater area, and is building a new office and warehouse in the Industrial Park. Peggy Hopkins Johnson is President of the Junior Woman's Club in Fredericksburg for the coming year.

Ruth Williams Campbell is an Assistant Professor of Pediatrics and Pediatric Coordinator and Director of a Multiple Handicaps Program at MCV. Her husband is in residency in anesthesiology at MCV. They have a son 3 years old. Carole Risdon Benchoff represented Mary Washington at the centennial celebration of Centenary College in Hackettstown, N.J. in June.

Winnie Hundemann lives in Parsippany, N.J. and teaches in Madison. She enjoyed a trip to Expo this summer and plans to visit Alberta "Bert" Shelton Stornetta soon. Bert lives in Annapolis where her husband is on the faculty. Winnie tells me that Shirley Matzenger Jones lives in Mobile, Ala. and just had her third son this year. Millicent Brown lives in Carteret and teaches in Woodbridge, N.J. She has made several trips abroad.

We enjoyed a visit in the spring with Mary Margaret Papstein Carter '55, George and their four sons in Oradell, N.J. They moved to a new home in June. George works for a consumer research firm in New York. We spent a weekend with Carol Cooper '55 in New Haven, Conn. in August. Carol is now Chief Social Worker in the Department of Pediatrics of Yale Medical Center, and was also appointed instructor in Social Work (Pediatrics) in the Yale Medical School.

Just before we left Jacksonville in February I had lunch with Joan Morgan Rountree, Hannah Lou Southwell McGowan '51 and Nora Lee Hulme Watkins '52. Nora Lee had just moved to Lake City from central Florida. Her husband is a mining engineer and they have two children.

Attorney Aileen Hirschman Belford, first Distinguished Alumna Award winner, is now holding the position of assistant attorney general for the State of New York on the staff of Attorney General Elliot L. Richardson. Mrs. Belford held the same position under his predecessor, Edward H. Brooke, now a Senator. Mrs. Belford is in charge of torts, the claims and collections division of the attorney general's office.

Janet Abbott Carr writes from Djakarta, Indonesia, where her husband Jim is Ass't Naval Attache, that they will be there until June 1968 and she hopes that if any MWC alumnae circa '53-55 are in the area they will come to visit. The Carrs have two sons and two daughters.

Ruth Sergeant Easley and Karen Osborne Toney, received their master's degrees in education from UVa in August. Ruth will teach 5th grade at Stafford Elementary School, and Karen will work as a reading specialist in Quantico.

'57 Betty Rhodes O'Donnell (Mrs. B.P.)
7 Winton Road
Toronto 12, Ontario, Canada

Ours was the largest reunion group. There were fifty-two from '57 and we were delighted at the sight of one another.

After ten years the warmth of the college has not changed a bit, though change was evident everywhere. The college is growing better; we could see it. As we look back on our reunion weekend it will be with pride; as we look to Mary Washington's future . . . we're beaming!

We were pleased to have our Class sponsor, Miss Greenberg, present for our class meeting on Saturday morning. She has recently become an associate professor in physical education.

I read a letter which I had received from Lucile Fletcher Aussicker. In the fall of 1965 she had the misfortune of contracting Multiple Sclerosis which left her blind and in a wheel chair. A cure for this disease is not yet known but Lucile is taking experimental drugs which have helped enough to enable her to work again part-time. Her spirit is excellent and we wish her well. Lucile has a daughter, Phyllis, who is nine years old. Their address is: 453 Bryn Mawr, San Antonio, Texas.

We elected our new class agent; the hands down favorite — Nancy Hallett Guest! Keep her mail box bulging at 7 Sunset Avenue, Albany, N.Y. 12203 (Mrs. Harry R.).

Vickie Majure Souder, looking adorable as ever, came all the way from Toledo to join us. Barbara Dill Montgomery did a great job of handling a near-mob en route from Washington to Fredericksburg. Betsy Jones Ware was house hunting in the Bethesda, Md. area the day before Homecoming. Latane, her husband, is beginning a tour in the Naval Medical Corps.

Mary Smith Buchanan teaches in a Montessori School in D.C. She has two children.

Marlene Bost Braun and Carl have a second child, a boy. Their daughter is six. The Brauns live in No. Kingston, R.I.

The famous "round robin group" which has had a letter circulating on-and-off for ten years, all returned in June: Barbara Dill Montgomery,

Naomi Johns Bowles, Vickie Majure Souder, Mary Smith Buchanan, Betsy Jones Ware, Lois Prime Liles and Betty May Rose Ballengee.

Mary Whitford works for an agency in New York that places students in secondary schools and colleges.

Barbara Popek Guill taught school for five years after graduation. Her husband is with the Va. Dept. of Highways, at Dillwyn. The Guills have three children.

Anne Lenzi Peters combined the trip from Cincinnati to the reunion with a visit with her parents in Richmond and a vacation with the children (two boys and a girl) on the Potomac.

Gayle Chandler Campbell, Ruth Shuler Wampler and Susan Bender Trotter came down from Springfield. Susan and Ben have two boys and two girls ranging in age from nine to one.

Jo Markwood Blue and Anna Grace Dovell Howie awaited babies due in early fall. This will be #3 for each. Anna Grace and Jerry moved in June to an old house on historic Kings Highway in Ole Middletown Village, N.J. Jerry is a consultant-analyst with L.W. Ellwood Co. Real Estate Investors in Ridgewood. On the way to Fredericksburg, the Howies stopped in Maryland to visit Barbara Leonard Colonell and Dick. Their sixth child is due soon!

Ellen Hertz Hewitt sounds almost like a native Richmonder. She and Charlie have two girls and two boys.

Naomi Johns Bowles, her husband and Neal have a new home in Richmond.

Judith Shank Eidemueller is teaching first grade in Pittsburgh. Her husband, Jack, has his own law practice.

Peggy Gray was up from Richmond where she is a very good social worker.

Betty May Rose Ballengee and Jim have two sons and a daughter and live in Charleston,

S.C. Ernestine MacLaughlin Lawrence and Kent moved to D.C. from Mt. Pleasant, S.C. just in time for Homecoming. The Lawrence's children are a girl, 7 and a boy, 4.

More in next issue!

50 Edna Gooch Trudeau (Mrs. Thos. A.)
1502 Dauphin St., Apt. 8
Mobile, Ala. 36606

Hi! Here are the words! Jane Tucker Broadbrooks has moved to Clemson, S.C.; husband, John, is working on a master's thesis. Marnie Reese Jones was expecting her third child in July. Fred is now a District Manager for a division of Signode Co. in High Point, N.C.

A note from Thayer "Tay" Reisner Adams is full of information. She and Bob placed sixth in the World's Championship sailing meet in Italy. It's a hobby they really enjoy! Be sure and tune in "Reach for the Stars." Does the stunt girl look familiar? She should! She's Sonda Kates Douglas. Tay attended the wedding of Nancy Seward '60 and Norman Howard. They are living in New York now. Emily Babb Carpenter and family were in Richmond for a visit.

Another newsy note came from Ann Brooks Papadatos. She was home recently to Fredericksburg for a visit. She said Joan Lautenslager Dodd is still in Richmond and this past year taught in Tuckahoe H.S. Just wonderful hearing from Sarah Withers Bell. Her husband, Jim, is working for United Airlines. And guess her outside interests. Flying, of course! Old earth-walker "Eddie" would be pleased to ride in their Porsche nevertheless! She taught in jr. h. s. last year and had one of those once in a life time classes.

Irene Piscopo wrote that Ann Watkins Steves left Texas for a while to visit home; and also that Carol Agesen Dunigan gave birth to a son in January. Sue Noguera is now Mrs. Tatilian and is residing in Grand Bahama. Lovely letter from Katherine Rowe Hayes who gave an exciting recap on her past eight years. They have built a home in Springfield, and are settling for a while. Her two girls keep her busy, though she is sending out a call for all those in that area to get in touch!

The family of Florette Van Orden Kelley is having the unusual experience of gold prospecting in the Amazon wilds. Ex-Marine Lt. Don Kelley is heading the expedition which is doing placer mining in the "mother lode" country on the slopes of the Andes not far from Quito, Ecuador. The area is near the unfriendly Aucas Indian Territory where several missionaries were found murdered. Florette and their four children, Don 9, Rod 8, Sheri 7, and Brent 6, live in Quito where the children attend school.

Carol Ann Carlin Anderson and husband Wayne, after having lived in Hawaii for three years while he was in the service, in Canoga Park, Calif. for two and a half years and in Denver for one and half years, have now settled in Houston, Texas, where Wayne is with NASA. They have two sons, Stephen 6, and Kenneth 1.

Keep all that wonderful news rolling on down to Alabama! It's a long way from Virginia and in my old age it will keep me from being homesick. Isn't that horrible, coming from an old married woman? Tom and I do so appreciate the sweet notes so many of you wrote. Thank you sincerely and on my honor I will answer them. So far I think I'm doing a fine job of driving him crazy — a typical wife. Alabama hasn't decided what grade they need me for, so—. Tom, by the way, works for a division of ITT.

Have you noticed that let-down feeling you have when, turning first to class news you find none from your class and, after searching through at least twice hoping it was just misplaced, it's still not there? And when the next issue arrives and still no news of '60 you have that lost feeling! Well, for pete's sake, and mine, send in those notes with news. At first I was chagrined, but we have gobs of news this issue. Please keep the letters coming in.

Roberta Gaverick Olson and David are in Marago, Calif. where his new job in the Ocean Marine Dept. of Johnson Higgins, International Insurance brokers, took them last summer. Their son was born in Sept. '66. The home-designed birth announcement was shaped like a book, their "First Edition," with title, publication date, contents and co-authors. Bobbie would like to contact any alumna in the San Francisco area.

We got a post card from Carole Elliott Bookhart, who transferred to Fla. State after her sophomore year. Her new address is 132 Indian Lane, Oak Ridge, Tenn. Husband Tom is a mathematician with Union Carbide, nuclear division. They have two little daughters 3, 1 1/2. Carole exchanges Christmas cards with Judith Saunders Lawrence, her former roommate, who is in a Wilmington, Del. suburb with Bob and their three children.

Another classmate who left after the sophomore year is Eleanore Day "Dodie" Tyrrell. Her letter left me breathless. After graduating from Westhampton, she spent a year and a half at the Univ. of Pa. as a research technician in physiological psychology. Then she moved to UCLA where she has been for the past 5 years working in brain research. Her project concerns the implantation of depth electrodes into the human brain; the subjects for this are primarily temporal lobe epileptics and some psychotic patients. Her outside interests are figure skating and skiing. Dodie has been an officer in the 300 member ski club for 4 years. They meet every week, take trips every weekend, play tennis, bridge, volleyball, go skating, bicycling and riding during the week. Dodie said it was exhausting at times. I believe it! Dodie's sister and aunt both live in Fredericksburg, so we are looking for her at Homecoming sometime soon.

Dorothy Zirkle sent word of her 3-year stint teaching with the Dept. of Defense Overseas Schools. She was in France and spent 6 wks. during the summer of '66 in Austria where, under an NDEA grant, she studied courses given by Stanford Institute of American History. Dorothy barely missed serious flooding which occurred just after she left. Her next assignment was at an Air Force High School near Oxford, England. In her words, "... starting a school from scratch on a military base in a strange and frequently bizarre experience." Dotty returned to the States this past July.

Nancy Mann Kaplan (96 Country Club Lane, Belmont, Mass. 02178) went to Cape Cod this summer with David and their two sons, David, Jr. 4 and Steven 2 1/2. Nancy loves New England and would like to get together with MWC friends in the area.

Carole Wallace Martin wrote us from her new address: 9027 18th Ave. S., Bloomington, Minn. 55420. Her husband left the USMC in Oct. '66, and is now employed as a pilot for Northeast Orient airlines. They have two sons 6, 4 and "are expecting a daughter in early January." Carole is anxious to contact any MWC alumnae in the Twin Cities area. Her phone no. is 884-2021.

Anne Butler Hyde's husband Tom, USNA '60, has completed his master's and they are both teaching in a Jr. College. Anne says it's great working together. Little Kip enters first grade this year. Personal to Anne: Yes, as class agent I have offered to work up an address service, as well as geographical lists for our class. If you send me a pre-stamped envelope or post card and the names of those you want to contact, I'll send the most up to date information I can. Of course we'll have to rely on the others to keep my files current.

Mary Louise "Wegie" Wharton Hubbard is busy caring for their four children, ages 3 to 7, refinishing furniture, and painting the house. Johanna "Joey" Van Tol Bullock's husband has been transferred from Miami to New York. Their new address is: 23 Campbell St., Waldwick, N.J.

After 8 mos. (Mar.-Oct. '66) in Paris, where Bob was doing research in Fetal Endocrinology at the Faculte de Science, Judith Davidson Creasy wrote from New York. They were to head for San Francisco in July, where Bob will serve 2 yrs. with the Army at Letterman Hosp. doing Ob.-Gyn., then they will be on their own. Judy spent a day with Priscilla Buckaway Benford. Prissy and Norm are in Port Washington, L.I. with their little son, 2 1/2. Judy, who has a daughter, and Prissy are both expecting again in the fall.

A delightful letter from former class agent Penny Engle Mohl brought news of Charlean Jackson who works for an employment service and is doing very well. She knows some of the astronauts, which must be exciting. Penny's husband, Ray, has finished his PhD and is teaching at U. of Ind. at the Gary, Ind. regional campus. They have waited a long time for this and all our good wishes go with them. They have two children, a girl and a boy, 5 and 7. Thanks for all the news, Penny.

Martha Butler Machiorlete is in Allentown, Pa. where her husband works for 3M Corporation. Kittie Gault Gravins has a little girl and lives in Richmond. Betty Bruce Sheppard has 2 children. Becky Lonas Allen and Tom have 2 daughters and live in New Jersey.

Homecoming was a delight and I garnered much gossip there. First we must make note of the marriage of Bonnie Davis to Ross David Hall on June 16. They sailed to Europe on the "France" for their honeymoon. Rose Bennett Gilbert and Robert were both in the wedding party. (Others in the wedding party were Rita Knupp and Bibi Perry.) Bonnie and Ross will live in Rochester where Ross is a professor of Linguistics. By the way, both of the Halls have their PhD's.

Robert and Rose Bennett Gilbert planned a rendezvous with the honeymooners in Germany, where we hope they all signed Debby's many, where we hope they all signed Debby's cast. Rose is now an asst. editor of the magazine 1001 Decorating Ideas, and Robert is with a firm that makes College Board exams.

Lois Ahlor Lohr, back in the Richmond area, now lives in Mechanicsville. Her husband is working on his dissertation and is asst. professor of math at RPI. They have one son, 3. Lois unexpectedly ran into Joan Dunn at a children's birthday party. Isn't it a small world? Ann Morton Rawles is also in Mechanicsville.

Joyce Estes Ross, who left in 1959, to graduate finally in '62, lives in Annandale with a 3 1/2 yr. old daughter and her husband who is principal of Fairhill Elem. School. They were expecting another baby in Sept. Betsy Baily and Rita Knupp arrived just as the Alumnae Luncheon was ending, so I only got to say hello. I for one must honestly admit I didn't recognize the new, chic, always-pretty-but-now-a-knock-out Rita. I hadn't seen her since 1960 and I wish the years had been as kind to me!

I spent 3 wonderful days with my former roommate, Carole Faison Williams, and her family in Springfield, Pa. in mid-July. Wayne is with IBM in Philadelphia. They have three children, Matt, Beth and Laura Lee, a most adorable baby born in March. While there I viewed some great home movies of the family of Charlotte "Charlie" Wohlneck Wiggs '59. Last May Joan Fuller McCormack, who dropped out during our sophomore year, spent the weekend with me. She and Frank, now a Lt. Col. in the Army, have two daughters and are still at Ft. Eustis.

As for my news, the children and I are waiting not so patiently for Ralph to return from Vietnam next spring. I've learned one thing — that I'm not as independent and self-sufficient as I thought. David 7, Cathy 5 and Brad 4 are growing with frightening speed. I'll be teaching Kindergarten again and dreaming of a second honeymoon in San Francisco come April.

In May I had the honor of sitting in for Rose on a panel at an Alumnae Council meeting. There is so much potential progress and accomplishment in our Association. I'd appreciate hearing your thoughts on the role of the Alumnae Association as a whole or how it might help individuals, the College, etc. I accepted assignment to the Student-Alumnae Relations Committee, a special committee which we hope will improve communications and contacts between the students and alumnae for the benefit and growth of both.

I do wish more of you could have attended Homecoming this year and hope you'll try to come next year. New things are happening in the Alumnae Association — it seems to be awakening. It's quite exciting and satisfying to be a part of it — won't you join us?

I have lots of old and new news for you this time. First, I want to apologize for the incorrect name of Sarah Leigh Kinberg's son under the photograph in the Spring issue. His name is Tom, Jr., not Toni — my bad handwriting at fault.

Way back in March, just after the last deadline, I received a nice letter from Nell Robinson. Her new name is Mrs. Robert C. Jones; their address is 4111 E. Town House Rd., Richmond, 23228. They are both with the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia, she as Confidential Secretary to Dr. Prince Woodard, the Director, and Bob as Resources and Development Administrator. They had a trip to the Southwest which they loved. Nell also wrote news of Sara Ellen Flowers McKinney whom she sees often in Richmond. Sara Ellen teaches Sunday School and is taking three night courses at RPI. Sylvia McJilton Woodcock talked to Nell at Christmas and said they were on their way to Williamsburg where they will be living in a new home they were building. Kay Christian Hunter '62 is in Nell's bridge club and was expecting her second child last spring.

In May I got a newsy letter from Sandy Walters Julifs. They moved in April from Minnesota to Stevens Point, Wis., (3708 Lorraine St. 54481) where Harold is with the California Packing Corp. Until the move, she did substitute teaching and private tutoring. After the move, she was busy organizing a new home and waiting for a second child, due in August. Their son David is 5. She sent news of others too — Anna Lonn Cushman, Charlie, and their two children are in Sunderland, Mass. Anne Bostick Lindsay, Don, and two daughters are in Kershaw, SC, and she continues to ride horses and hunt them.

Nancy Brooks Blevins and David have moved to Roanoke and have three girls. Alice and Herb Pritchard are building a new house and she is teaching English. Jennie Sue Breeden Minor, Les, and family live in Charlottesville; and Carolyn Austin Martin lives in Catonsville, Md. where her husband is an Episcopal minister. Margaret Pierce Metzler and family are in Wiscasset, Maine. Thanks for the news, Sandy.

Got a real enthusiastic letter from Phyllis Pierce Schwartz in June, mainly concerning the birth of their first child, a boy. They have moved to the "country" (compared to NYC) — 470 Highview Rd., Englewood, NJ, 07631 — and live in a one-in-a-million type apt. ground floor of a gorgeous modern private home on 3 1/2 acres with a pool, no less. Rich has a marvelous job as general manager of a knitting manufacturing plant in Jersey. Her news of others follows.

Mary Ann Ruby and Ham Hannah are in Md., she is no longer working and he is at Bethesda on some type of research program while serving Uncle Sam. Pat Kenney was last heard to be living in Georgetown (DC), driving a Porsche, and and was one of the 4 Medical Illustrators at Johns Hopkins. Rebecca Turner is in Richmond as a med. tech. Nancy Wright Wright's husband is in Vietnam and she's doing counselling work at the high school in her home town, Damascus, Va. She has 2 sons. Phyllis (and I) hope to hear from some of the many people missing from the News, so that's a big hint to you all! Thanks for the letter, Phyllis.

Got a post card from Jean Ryan Farrell in July and they were spending the last two months of Frank's Career Course in El Paso, which she said was like a paid vacation. Frank left for Vietnam about Sept. 10, and Jean and the two boys are in Arlington.

This has really been a big year for me for many reasons. During my spring vacation I went out to Peoria, Ill. to visit Janie Riles Wamsley, Bill, and daughter Annelise. Needless to say, we did not stop talking the entire time and we had fun cooking some fancy Javanese dishes that she learned about in Suriname. Their apt. was decorated with everything from a native poison dart kit trimmed with parrot feathers to a beautiful rug made from a jaguar shot minutes before they saw it! Bill is in sales with Westinghouse Air Brake Co. and they were due to go to Caracas, Venezuela, this fall. In June they went to Calif. to visit Bill's parents and also saw my sister Linkey Booth Wilhelm '63 in Oceanside.

Over Memorial Day weekend, Andy and I went down to Beltsville, Md. to take part in the christening of Clara Sue Durden Ashley's second boy, Park Derek, born in March. They went to Hawaii for a week right after that. We also saw Elizabeth "Bitsy" Wright Coxe and Mike and their two boys at their lovely home in Phoenix, Md.

In June and July, Andy and I took a 3-week trip to Greece to visit his family for the second time. It was really a wonderful trip and was like going home for me this time. When we got back, we saw that our new house had definitely taken shape and should be ready for us to move into this fall. We bought a lot right down the street from Barbara Upson Gravely, Martin, and Meg, and are looking forward to being neighbors. At the writing of this column, I was in Oceanside, Calif., visiting my sister Linkey for a couple weeks in August. It was my first trip to the West Coast and we had a lot of fun, but I prefer the East. It was great seeing my little niece again — and Linkey and Frank too!

It has been a big year for us so far, and I'm sure it has for you, too, so let's hear about it! My next deadline is Dec. 5, so you have lots of time to write.

Connie

Hope all of you had an enjoyable summer. There isn't a lot of news to add to what Connie has written.

If you ask Betsey Hueston Hansen if she enjoyed her summer, she's sure to say YES. Her husband, Carl, was able to get R and R to Hawaii in May, and she joined him. Since she got back, she's been teaching courses at Ft. Eustis. Anne Eckert writes that she is no longer in Boston but has moved to San Rafael, a suburb of San Francisco. She has seen Barbara Steen and Prudie Shepherd quite often. They are living together in San Francisco. Catherine Cork Adams had news of what she's been doing since we were graduated. She taught in Charleston, W. Va. and was married in '62 to a W.Va.U.

dental student. In '65, she got her master's in education and her husband was graduated. They discovered an associateship in dentistry in Anderson, S.C., and accepted. She has been teaching and loves every minute of it. Her husband opened his own office this summer, and she plans to teach one more year and then "retire."

A question for Carol Anne Schock Furman — are you now a director of a nursery school in Oxon Hill, Md.? Your fund note said that you were not, and I wondered if it was a typographical error.

Another of our classmates has felt the lure of California. Sue Wilson Boling and Jerry are making their temporary home in Palo Alto while he is a graduate student at Stanford U. He received a fellowship sponsored jointly by the Bureau of the Budget and the National Institute for Public Affairs for a year's study. Oops! I see that someone date stamped the letter 5/1/66. I'll assume it should be '67 and go on from there. They planned to return to their home in Annandale, Va., in June. They have two boys.

Elizabeth Hull Gray is now living in Evanston, Ill. where she teaches 5th grade in the Gorton School. In '65 she obtained her M.A. in education from the National College in Evanston. Mary K. LeBlanc Ingle is living in Long Beach, Calif. where her husband is serving in a submarine. She was married in Dec. of '66 to a career Navy man. He was recently promoted to Lieutenant Commander and was scheduled to go to Vietnam in August.

Joyce Gann Rush writes that she and Carol now have two girls. Her husband is employed by the Babcock and Wilcox Co. in Lynchburg. Mary Gilliam Dodson, her roommate at MWC, spent Easter vacation with her. Mary Gilliam is still teaching at Featherstone Elementary School in Prince William County. Joyce taught art in a junior high for 3 years, but has done only occasional substitute work since her last child was born. She has recently started on a new hobby — taking organ lessons.

Kay Anderson Waterbury, her husband (Major Antony), and two children are living in Quantico after returning from Hawaii. Dr. Clyde Carter, who was stationed there for summer duty, had supper with them.

Margaret Strickler Hatcher received her master's degree in education from UVa in August. She will teach science at Gayle Junior H.S. Barbara Anne White Ramer '53 and Joyce Rae Newman Burgess have been nominated for the 1967 edition of Outstanding Young Women of America by the Fredericksburg Chapter of the AAUW. Barbara Anne, who is secretary of the Fredericksburg Chapter of the Alumnae Association, teaches 7th grade science at Maury elementary school and Joyce is a first grade teacher at Ferry Farms elementary school.

Connie and I have been wondering if Bev Stone Bowers and Carol Grant LeMay are still interested in continuing as class agents? Would you please let us know, as there have been a couple of offers from other girls to do it.

From the looks of things, I'll be buried deep under mounds of paper work by the time you read this. More Social Security Amendments are scheduled, so here we go again. Do keep the letters coming.

Mary

Class of 1962

Elaine Clements Gardner, Sue Grandy Gibson, Myrtle Lee Dean France, Ella Waller Margele, Deanne Lohrman McNeil, Georgianne Maloy Hull.

'62 Linda Barwick
7753 Patriot Drive, Apt. 32
Annandale 22003

The fifth reunion of the Class of 1962 was really a lot of fun, although not very well attended! The few of us there enjoyed seeing one another and talking of old times at MWC. The professors remain ageless and even remembered some of us.

Enjoyed seeing Ella Waller Nargele and her husband, Dominic, also Lynn Gorley Farrell and her husband, Sue Grandy Gibson and Bob, Joan Akers Rothgeb and Eddie.

Mary Robin White Waters, Patsy Barcliff McDermott and I drove to Fredericksburg together, where we met Carolyn Powell and Reba Calvert Bayliss. Carolyn took a graduate course in Charlottesville last summer and moved into a new apartment in September. She plans to resume teaching in Fairfax County. Patricia Barcliff McDermott is kept busy by her young son, David. She, Hugh and David will be moving into their new home in September.

Robin White Waters and Jim (he's a pilot for United Airlines) are moving to Denver. Since they both like to ski Denver is definitely the place to go. I may become a permanent house guest.

Patricia Mackey Taylor couldn't come to the reunion. She is kept busy with two little Taylors and was expecting a third in September. Suzanne Driscoll Weber is also expecting number three.

Deanne Lohrman McNeil provided lots of news at our fifth reunion. Susanna Palmer Hill and Larry are now living in Midland, Texas. They moved there around Christmas and Susanna has been doing some substitute teaching. Sue Skelton Tumlinson and Jim were expecting their first child in August. Deanne is also expecting a child. Little Scott will be nearly three when his brother or sister arrives in November. Edith Gilbert Smith is now back from Hawaii with their 2 children and is living in Roanoke with her folks. Vince left May 1 for Cal. and was to leave June 1 for Vietnam.

Elaine Clements Gardner's husband, Don, received the Silver Star for his actions last August in Vietnam. Elaine looked wonderful at the reunion and was looking forward to Don's return very shortly. Patricia Rucker Sampson and her two daughters are living in Roanoke awaiting their man's return. We wish Godspeed to them all. May it be a safe short journey.

Mary Maddrey "Wolfie" Isenhour was married last September. Barbara Saunders Woods and husband have a son, Hunter 2 1/2. Barbara teaches P.E. at George Washington H.S. in Alexandria.

Received much news from Louise Couch Girvin. Carlisle Allen married Lynn L. Pearson and is now living in Utica, N.Y. where he is studying Orthopedic Surgery. Louise visited Kathleen Sprenkle Lisagor and family in Newport News. Sounded like they all had a wonderful time. Louise, John and daughter live in Lexington, Ky. and seem to love it. Joyce Wilborn Lacy and Lewis have a new daughter. They bought a home in Towson, Md.

Carolyn Livingston Wetmore and her husband expected to return to the states soon. They enjoyed their stay in Switzerland but seemed to be looking forward to returning to the U.S. Lucy Ritter Todd and husband live in Manhattan where he is Assistant Minister at Calvary Episcopal Church. Jeanne Craig Gough, Bob and little Steven are enjoying their assignment at the Air Force Academy. Bob is in the Economics Dept. teaching mostly 3rd classmen.

Linda DeAlba Scott and Gordon have a home in Newport News where Gordon works for Jones, Blechman, Woltz and Kelly Law Firm. Linda has been teaching since graduation but now plans to retire and enjoy her new home. She keeps in touch with her MWC roommate, Marion Adams, who married Linda's Cousin Carl Spain in 1962. The Spains live in Richmond now and he works for C & P Telephone Co. They have a son, David.

Received a short note from Sally A. Abbott, M.D. Sally, Jerri Ann Barden ('61) and Carolyn Dale Candler received their M.D. degrees from MCV in 1966. Jerri is presently engaged in research at NIH in Bethesda, Md. Dale is doing an Internship at MCV in preparation for an anesthesiology residency. Sally is interning at Mercy Hospital in Springfield, Ohio. In October she plans to open an office in Springfield, doing general practice and obstetrics.

Anona Getchell Estes was sorry she was unable to come to the reunion. Her husband leaves soon for his second tour of duty in Vietnam as a helicopter pilot. They have a home in Mineral Wells, Texas, where he is an instructor at the Primary Helicopter School. "Nonie" is expecting her second child in November. Debbie is almost five years old.

Deborah Ashton is a buyer for Saks Fifth Avenue in active sportswear. She travels to Europe and across the U.S. to their branch stores. Debbie keeps in touch with Pamela Kingston Anderson who has a daughter and a son. They live in Northbrook, Ill. Kathie McAlenney Lazo is living in Conn. and has a son, Theodore. Debbie sees Nancy Weston once in a while. Nancy was married last winter. Harriette Broadus Southworth received a master's in education from U. Va. last August.

Margaret Clements Gardner was in Spotswood (8/21/67). She and her husband and 3 yr. old daughter have moved to Fredericksburg as her husband, a Captain in the Marines, is stationed at Quantico after serving in Vietnam.

Mary Barrett, daughter of John Barrett of RFD 4 Fredericksburg, received her master's in education from UVA. in August. She will teach this year in the Prince William County school system.

I took a trip up North last winter and visited Kristine McElroy Kelly, Jack and their two daughters in N.J. While at Tina's I talked to Katherine Berner Erb. She and Lou also have two daughters. From N.J. I went to Boston and then on to Vt. for some skiing. Unfortunately the weather turned warm and the snow melted. Oh well, I'm not a very good skier anyway.

'63 Barbara "B" Prall Granger (Mrs. R.P.)
8 Richbourg Court
Greenville, S.C. 29607

Elizabeth Chamberlain Hartz (Mrs. Wm.)
2338 A Somervell Street
Fort Eustis 23604

Mary Lee Tate married L.P. (Pete) Roberts in June, 1966. Pete works for G.E. in Phila. and they have an apartment in Lansdowne, Pa. I visited with Mary Lee in June — she had just finished what she hoped would be her last year of teaching.

Had a nice letter from Patricia McGivern Leeper last spring. She, Jim and their two children (ages 3 and 8 months) were to leave for Guantanamo Bay this past summer. Before that, their home was in Athens, Ga. where Pat taught 5th grade one year and then worked as a research assistant in anthropology at the U. of Ga. Pat says Frances Lee Carr is now living in Cal. where her husband is a commercial jet pilot. Patricia Leeper O'Connor has two children. Her husband returned from Vietnam last spring.

What a surprise! In May I received a phone call from Allie-Blue Habel Everett en route to Key West for a vacation. Allie-Blue, her husband (a pediatrician) and their small daughter are moving this fall to Great Falls, Montana, Malmstrom AFB. Alex Riddleberger Farger and Fred are in Richmond. Alex is teaching and Fred is in law school. Peggy Palmer is teaching in Lynchburg. Jo Lynn Howell Savery and husband are in Chapel Hill, N.C. While he completes law school, Jo Lynn keeps busy taking care of their two-year-old son. They are soon expecting another child. Noel Cockcroft (married name?) and family are living in Lexington. Her husband attends law school at W&L. They have two children — a girl 3 1/2 and a boy 1.

Betsy Lydle sends lots of news. She has been teaching in San Diego and sees several MWC girls often. Susan Rutan Joehnk lives in La Jolla with husband Karsten and son Kristopher. Catherine Foster Wilde received her master's degree last year. She and Hal live in Anaheim, Cal. Betsy taught school with Sue Perry Moody '64. Her husband Dennis is a pilot with TWA. Judy Wolfe Allan '62 went to Japan last spring to visit her husband who is a pilot on the Kitty Hawk. Nancy Stonim is in Hartford, Conn. teaching drama at a summer arts festival there. Jo Dreher Gibson is still living in Alexandria. The Gibbons have two sons. Betsy says she saw Maureen "Mo" Lyon last Jan. Mo was on her way to San Francisco to work with the War on Poverty. As for Betsy's own news — she spent the summer of '66 in Europe and after teaching summer school in the states this summer she hopes to teach in Europe this fall.

Chris Dorner Clark has been busy since graduation. In 1964 she and Tom moved to Baden Switzerland. Tom, an engineer, represented his company there for a year and a half and their first baby, Paul, was born there. The Clarks also traveled extensively in Germany, Luxemburg, Belgium and Holland. They returned to the U.S. last year and bought a home in Canton, Mass. Last Oct. their second child, Catherine, was born.

After leaving MWC at the end of her sophomore year, Janice Coleman Beach was married (Sept. 1960). The beaches have two sons — Chuckie 5 and Chris 20 months. Charles is working in real estate and Janice plans to teach 3rd grade this year. She requests news of Linda Sharples Hughes and Gay Wood.

Amanda Whichard Cebrowski and John are civilians once again. John is an industrial designer and they are living in North Aurora, Ill. Mandy sends news of the following girls: Ann Wallace received her MA from G.W. University and plans to tour Europe for a year starting this fall. Kathryn Barrett Bilisoly, Win and daughter are living in Alexandria. Peggy Baylor Sturt and Guy are in Hughesville, Md. She is working for the Health Dept. in La Plata, Md.

Diane Lovewell writes that she is managing the Washington D.C. office of an oil consultant and "loving every minute of it." She is living in a townhouse in southwest Washington. Diane sees Dinah Dooley and Beverly Sangston occasionally.

Cynthia Sharpe Conger, who lost her first husband in an accident in their home in 1965, writes that she has remarried and is now living in Pottstown, Pa. Cynthia has two sons, ages 4 and 2, and she and Oliver are expecting a child in Sept. The Congers spent two months in the fall touring Europe on their honeymoon and went to the Bahamas this spring for a vacation with their children.

Marna Harlow Cordle and Bill are living in Hampton. They both work at Langley Field for NASA Space Program. Marna is a mathematician and Bill is an engineering draftsman. Lynne Kotarsey Blair is Assistant Registrar of the National Collection of Fine Arts (a branch of the Smithsonian Institution). Her husband is working on his MA in English at Georgetown Univ. Carolyn Pollard Nelson and husband are both working at the Naval Weapons Laboratory. They have a little girl, Sarah Lynn, who is a year old. Jane Gholson Lanham writes that she and Bob are still living in Arlington. Bob works with Control Data in Rockville, Md. and Jane is busy helping with a co-op nursery school. They have two boys — Ricky, 3 1/2 and Robby, 2 1/2. Grace "Gee" Tucker Fruit writes that she is married and thoroughly loving life with Bill and their two daughters, Jean, 8 and Betsy, 5. They are living in Va. Beach and Gee has retired from teaching except for occasional substituting.

Finally heard news from two of the "missing" members of our class. Jean Morrison is now Mrs. Robert Williams. She, Bob and their baby daughter are living in Des Moines, Iowa. After leaving MWC, Susan Marsh graduated from the U. of N.C. in '63. She then married David Grogan and they spent two years at Ft. Knox, Ky. with the Army. David is now at the Wharton School of Finance (U. of Pa.) and they are living in Swarthmore, Pa. Susie has taught 2nd grade for the past four years. Good to hear from you, Susie! Cynthia Caffee Carson is living in Pensacola with husband Chris and baby Melissa. Chris is a lawyer serving in the Navy at this time. Sara White Tuttle has a son and is living in Cheektowaga, N.Y. where her husband is with a local law firm.

The only news from the Granger clan is that Sallie Granger Daughtrey and Tom are now with Texaco and living temporarily in Norfolk. Sallie was expecting a "sister" for two-year-old Billy the end of August.

Please do write and let me know of all your doings. We need especially to have news from those of you who haven't written lately. Thanks to you who did write your news. Keep the letters coming.

"B"

Greetings from the U.S. this time. Bill and I had a grand time in Korea but it's good to be home again. We will leave Fort Eustis in October and become civilians.

On my way back from Korea, I stopped in Md. to see Patsy Ballou Saunders and her adorable daughter. There have been quite a few new additions since my last article. Nancy LaPrade Smith — a girl in July; Harriet Davis Verburg — a son in July; Karen Gentry Williams '65 — a daughter in Feb.; Mary Page Burden Cosby — son in Jan. '66 — she traded 30 students for one fulltime learner! Well it looks like Betty Candle Marshall might keep her MWC prediction — 10 kids at the 10 year reunion — she was expecting her third in March. Do keep me posted on births as soon as possible so your children won't be grown before it gets printed!

Betty Jo Cowles Yates is living in Blacksburg, where Dan is a math instructor at VPI and he is working on his PhD. Virginia Walker Jarvis and Dave are now in Hanover, where he is pastor of Lebanon Methodist Church. He received his master of Sacred Theology from Union Theological Seminary in N.Y. and Ginny got her PHT (Put Hubby Through) degree. Patty Boyett '65 is teaching math for the second year and has 2 cheerleading squads that keep her busy. Jeanne Horsman Scott is living in Alexandria, where she is a probation officer with the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court and she counsels wayward girls, supervises neglected children, does marriage counseling, etc. — sounds like a real interesting job. Sam is with the sales department of VEPCO. Ellen "Tommy" Hulcher Thompson '61 and her husband and daughter are now living in Richmond where John is patent attorney for Reynolds Metals Co. Betsey Bourke Christian wrote that Meade would be doing his internship somewhere in the South — where are you Betsey? Mary Saunders Hazelwood stays busy with her daughter and teaching and Bert is still in the oyster business. Lee Tilton is living in Richmond and working at MCV and sees Nancy Lee Leidy who is working with the kidney transplants there. Cordelia Boswell '64 is leaving MCV to be married soon. She said that Frances Taliaferro Thomas '64 now has 2 sons. Page Perkins Newman '64 had a girl in Aug.

Matilda Vickrey Kromminga was by the Alumnae office Aug. 31 with her husband, Lynn, who is attending Law School at the U. of Md. in the evenings while holding a full-time position with a mortgage company. He expects to receive his degree in June, 1968. Matilda is working as an assistant librarian in a local library. They have a daughter, April Linthicum, born in Dec. 1966.

Keep the news coming!

Thirteen members of the Class of 1964 managed to return to MWC during Homecoming weekend to celebrate our third reunion. Seven of us managed to get to the front steps of Mason Saturday morning in time for a reunion picture, and our gathering grew as we proceeded to Marshall Parlor. There we enjoyed renewing old acquaintances and catching up on one another's activities during the past three years. News of absent classmates, via the reunion questionnaires and snapshots, was avidly received.

To start at the beginning, I'll pass on the news from classmates in attendance at the reunion. Sharon Belknap was passing through Fredericksburg and stopped for a while to chat. She, as reported last issue, is working at the Library of Congress. Coming from Hampton were Sharon Haythorne and Jean Sheehan. Sharon is a mathematician for NASA, and Jean is a math teacher in Hampton.

Kathryn Farrel and Carolyn Smith were present from Charlottesville. Kathy is a secretary at the UVa Hospital, and Carolyn is working in Cancer Research at UVa Med School. Also in attendance from Charlottesville was Jacqueline Williams Towler. Jackie is going grad work in education at UVa while husband Horace is in Vietnam.

Edna Knight Roberts and Judith Presson Anderson were down from Northern Virginia. Edna and John bought a house in Fairfax Co. in Nov. '66. Edna teaches third grade in Alexandria, and John is a salesman for Atlantic Research. Judy and Carl live in Falls Church where Judy has been teaching for the past three years.

Caroline Ridgely Hayden was present from Fredericksburg where she and Carroll live with their son Clark, born Oct. '66. Carroll is an electronics engineer, and Caroline, a "retired" home ec. teacher, is now a busy housewife and mother.

Attending from the Richmond area were Jean Klix Hazelwood and Barbara Coulter Kardian. Both of these girls work for A. H. Robins Pharmaceuticals and Research. Jean is a research biologist in Neuropharmacology, and Barbara is in the Bio-chemical branch of Pharmacology. Jean and Bill have bought a home in Sandston. They have a daughter, Lisa Ann, who was two in July. Bill is a computer programmer at State Planters Bank. A recent note from Jean found her and Bill about to embark upon a belated honeymoon via jet to San Juan, Puerto Rico, for an 8-day stay, with a stop at St. Thomas on the way back. Barbara was married to Frank Kardian in Nov. '66. Jean and Carolyn Smith who attended the wedding attested to how beautiful it was. At reunion time, Barbara was excited about moving into the new house she and Frank were buying.

Jeanne Fornes Updike had dual interests at MWC in June. She was back for our reunion and also for her sister's graduation. Jeanne, as reported last issue, is also in Richmond where she and John have bought a house. They expect their first child in Oct. This gave Jeanne and me a mutual topic for awhile, for Ray and I are eagerly awaiting the arrival of our first child also — in Dec.

From Marshall we proceeded to Seacobeck where we had a delightful luncheon and the honor of having Dr. Croushore, our class sponsor, seated at our table. After the luncheon, several classmates attended with interest the Alumnae College panel discussion, "India Today."

Those who remained until dinner were graciously received by Dr. and Mrs. Simpson at a buffet at Brompton. Five of us stayed for the Saturday evening Alumnae Party at Fredericksburg's new Sheraton Motor Inn. Jackie, Carolyn, Sharon, Kathy, and I attended with my husband

Ray — who, I might add, thoroughly enjoyed the evening, especially at those odds.

We missed all of you who could not attend the reunion. Reunions, however, are set up for all classes for the third year, the fifth year, and every five years there after. So, maybe more of you will be able to attend our fifth in June, 1969. Plan ahead!

I would like to thank all of you who replied to the reunion questionnaire. The information and snapshots have been compiled into a reunion scrapbook. This task was very kindly accepted and completed by Jeanne Hazelwood and Barbara Kardian. Thanks to both of these girls for contributing their time. As soon as I have added some reunion pictures, I will place the scrapbook at Spotswood available to returning alumnae.

Because of limited space in each News issue, the information gathered from the questionnaires will have to be reported in installments. So, please don't think your letter has been neglected; it will be reported! Meanwhile, please keep the Alumnae Office aware of name and address changes. This is the only way you can be sure of receiving the Alumnae News.

Before closing, some congratulations are in order. The election of our classmate Judith Finger Bradley to the Alumnae Assn. Board of Directors was announced at Homecoming. Judy will represent the Classes 1963-66. While husband Chris has been in Vietnam, Judy has been living and teaching in Jacksonville, N.C. She and Chris were able to be together in Hawaii for several days in February, and a note from Judy reports that as a result they expect their first child Nov. 10th! At that writing, Judy expected Chris home in August and was looking forward to moving to Quantico after his return. Our congratulations and best wishes to you, Judy.

Finally, worth recognition, also, is the record of the Class of 1964 in the annual giving program this past year. At Homecoming the class ranked third for the amount of dollars contributed ($469), and it ranked first as the class with the greatest number of classmates contributing (67). Keep up the good work!

Questionnaire news — next issue.

Class of 1964

Jacqueline Williams Towler, Jean Fornes Updike, Sharon Belknap, Jean Chawning Rayman, Sharon Haythorne, Jean Sheehan, Mary Carolyn Smith.

Barbara Howe Lewis wrote that she was matron of honor in Roberta Mellor's wedding to Douglas Tilden last year in Tennessee. Roberta and Doug are in Georgia while he is in the Air Force, and Barbara and her husband are in Maryland where he is rector of an Episcopal church. Ann Dunman Mewborne, husband Bruce, and sons Bruce III and Jeffrey, are at Vanderbilt U. where Bruce is serving a four-year residency in radiology. Bruce previously served two years at Fort Jackson, S.C., and received the Army commendation medal.

Anne Gould has been a psychiatric social worker at Spring Grove State Hospital in Baltimore; she plans to go to graduate school this year. Anne had heard from Natalie Tulloch who is living in Paris and can be reached through the American Express there.

Eleanor Allison Moore received a master's in education from U. Va. in August, 1967. She will teach physical education at Quantico H.S.

Judy Bailey Givens received a 'fabulous' fellowship at the College of William and Mary to do graduate study towards her master's in political science.

I will be living and teaching in Roanoke this year, and you can write me at the address listed above. Please let me have any news of you that I can convey to our other classmates.

Karen Murrell Foreman writes that she and Maury are enjoying life in Richmond. Maury is a Systems Engineer with IBM and Karen is working for a radio station. Their neighbors are Susan Wolf Burdette '67 and her husband Gary who is also with IBM. Karen has seen Patricia Ruffin House who is teaching elementary school in Petersburg. Pat's husband Bob will also be teaching this Fall.

Barbara Kellam Latham is teaching 2nd grade in Wilmington, Delaware, while Roger is working for DuPont. Barbara Harper Carter is now living in Atlanta, Georgia, where Owen is teaching Naval ROTC courses at Georgia Tech. Carol J. Morris Edwards has taught English for three years. She was accepted as a member for the 1967 NDEA Institute at VPI where she plans to enter graduate school.

Frances Loftis is teaching Spanish at Field-Collinsville high school in Collinsville where she is chairman of the foreign language department. She planned to attend the NDEA Institute for Spanish teachers at East Carolina during the summer, and she hoped to begin work on her master's degree at the same time. Susan B. Pearson is living in the restored "Georgetown" part of Pittsburg, Pa. She is working as an administrative assistant for an A.W. Mellon Foundation grant, studying curriculum revision at Mount Mercy College.

Bob and I are still enjoying life in California. I have been teaching some beginning programming courses as part of my work for NASA.

First, a note from Jeanne Johnson Hughes says she has completed her dietetic residency at Andrews AFB, Md. and has been promoted to 1st Lt. She is now stationed at Tinker AFB, Okla. where husband Lynn will be finishing his last year of medical school at the University of Oklahoma Medical Center.

Linda Patterson Hamilton writes that she has been teaching at Bayside High School, Va. Beach, and is chairman of the foreign language department there. Her husband, a former marine she met at "good old Quantico," is now a claims adjuster for an insurance company. She says that Susan Lohr is also teaching in Va. Beach.

Janice Reavis Seager and husband Eddie took a tour of Italy last summer while he was stationed in Germany. While in Florence they ran into a couple at the hotel who had spent two years teaching in India. The girl was a 1958 graduate of MWC! Janice also writes that she hears from Catherine Grey that Beverley Walsh, Carol Delano, and Anne Plummer are married but no details. How about letting us hear from you, girls?

A postcard from Penny Partridge Booth says John is now out of the Marine Corps and is taking a job in industry in Richmond.

Note from Jane Crim Enright says husband Pat is now a captain in the USMC and they are planning to move to Monterey, Calif. where Pat will be sent to the Naval postgraduate school to receive his MS in two or three years. She had the following news: Jean Taylor Cocke and husband John have bought a home in Lynchburg and both are teaching. John will enter the service this fall. Margaret Emmons Woodard and Tom moved to Charlottesville where Tom will start his internship at the UVa hospital. Marge is now doing public health work in physical therapy. Susan Williams Cluff (who transferred to UCLA for her Jr. year), husband Mike and small son Michael, are living in Jacksonville, N.C. Janice Ashton Pinckney and husband and children are living at New River Air Facility near Jacksonville. Lani St. John Rakow and Bill are now at Quantico.

A letter from Toni Algren Schwyler says that while husband Peter is serving in Vietnam she is living with Elizabeth Kelling in Beltsville, Md. She is working as an oceanographer for the National Oceanographic Data Center in Washington. Liz works at NASA where she met her future husband, Bill Leasure, an engineer in the same building. Agnes "Missy" Bush Shives and husband are living in Charlotte, N.C. where she is teaching elementary music. Husband Barry works for Proctor Chemical Company in Salisbury, N.C. Missy received her master's degree from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill in August, 1966.

Joanne Lott writes that she is teaching 7th grade math in the Arlington County public school system for the second year. Last summer she spent two months traveling in Europe. While in Germany she visited her sister, Sherry Lott Thompson, '64, whose husband is stationed in Darmstadt, Germany.

"A year ago I could certainly not have imagined that I'd be a newspaper woman in Germany" writes Felicity Hallanan. She is on the staff of The Overseas Family published for American military families abroad, and assignments have taken her to Luxembourg to interview the U.S. Ambassador, and to many places in Germany. Her pre-foreign service major was ideal preparation, she says.

Sherryl Jackson Rainold writes that after leaving MWC she attended Tulane University to work on a MA degree in Spanish but has since given up work on the degree. Last year she taught Spanish at a private girls school. Her husband, who received his MA in business from Tulane, is now working at Freeport Sulfur Company in the personnel division. Her sister, Judith Ann Jackson, who left MWC after her sophomore year, has since graduated from Sophie Newcomb.

Frances Cox Harrod writes that her husband received his B.S. degree in August from the U. of Wyoming, and that the two of them have received assistantships to do graduate work at the University of Wyoming this fall. Her work will be in English and his in Chemistry.

Vicky Mason Slis writes that she and Susan Peterson Drage are both expecting sometime in Nov. Sue's husband is a captain, USMC and is serving in Vietnam. Sue is spending two months in Japan where she is able to be with Bob. Vicky's husband is a 2nd Lt. studying communications and electronics at Keisler AFB, Biloxi, Miss. They have received an assignment to Spain for three years.

Karen Marsteller Myers writes that she and her husband have moved into a 225 year-old-Pennsylvania Dutch farmhouse complete with barn and invites everyone to come and visit. They are living just outside Philadelphia. She says that Joyce Gallagher Martin is expecting her second child on son Shaun's first birthday. Lorraine Gott has left for a year in Korea with the USO as a recreational director. She's to arrange entertainments, counsel the homesick, etc. Susan Baker Hughes, who was widowed tragically in '65, has recently remarried to Bruce Watts. Daughter Ashley Hughes is just a doll, Karen says.

Anne Connell is teaching fourth grade at a Va. Beach school and is engaged to be married in December to Lt. (j.g.) Lee Sneed from South Carolina.

Carol Dunton Hill and husband John are now living in Alabama where he is flying helicopters in preparation for probable Vietnam duty.

Jean Guthrie Woodard, husband Carl and son Robert, are now living in Westland, Michigan, where Carl is territory sales manager for Hunt-Wesson Foods in Detroit.

Anne Aylett Stone Suhr has been teaching Latin in Alexandria. Her husband Eric has accepted a job with a New York City law firm after graduation in June from American U. Law School. They have a son Jay who was a year old in March, 1967.

Beverly Yvonne Walsh Everitt is teaching in the Cleveland, Ohio area where her husband is working at John Carroll University for a ROTC instructional position.

Margaret Van Sant Young '64 is working at Cape Cod this summer while husband Larry is at Ft. Knox for OCS. Both she and Larry had received graduate assistantships to the U. of Wyoming there they had planned to continue their studies before his induction into the army.

Lynne Bayles Moyer is working part time at the Alameda high school near San Francisco and taking care of baby Sean while her husband, who has recently been promoted to Captain, USMC, is on sea duty. They plan to return East when he gets out of the service.

Margaret Ann Fansler is a stewardess for United Air Lines and is based at O'Hare International Airport and living near North Side Chicago.

Elizabeth Scott is living and working as a secretary in Madrid, Spain. Judith Berinati is now living in Alexandria and teaching first grade. Judy Askew is working with Child Welfare in Richmond, after her return from California.

Kathleen Drake Frye and husband are living in Norfolk where he is employed by the Norfolk Redevelopment and Housing Authority, after having completed his graduate work at Syracuse U.

Judith Stoller Curtis and husband Tom have moved to Staunton where he is working as a purchasing agent for Westinghouse. He recently finished his tour with the Navy.

Carolyn Kennett Barry is living in Norfolk where husband Richard is practicing law after graduating from the UVa Law School in June.

Judith Sutherland is attending the Union Theological Seminary in Richmond.

Martha Bickley Wood Otto and husband Bill are living in Beaufort, S.C. where he is a Captain in the USMC.

Helen Simpson is working for IBM and looking forward to a three-month "tour of duty" in Hawaii in connection with her job. She received her miniature from midshipman John Lee in June, 1967 and they plan to be married in June 1968, when he graduates from Annapolis.

I will begin teaching chemistry at a private boys military school in Portsmouth this fall.

Let me hear from all of you.

The Class of '66 has had a busy spring and summer getting married, from the reports I have been receiving. Will give more details later; other news first.

Katherine Boyd writes that she is busy preparing to teach drama, speech and English at a high school in Norfolk; that she really enjoys teaching, especially directing plays. A geographer from the Dept. of Army, Anne Meade Claggett, is now living at 2568 Chain Bridge Road, Vienna, 22180.

Barbara Clark will receive her master's degree in political science this August from the U. of Wis. As of Sept. 1, her new address is 135 Virgin St., Platteville, Wis., where Barb will be an instructor in political science at Wis. State U. She plans to take courses at Madison toward her Ph. D.

Grace Marie Bamforth Garriott wrote a news-packed letter. Thanks. Quite a few of the class are teachers. Patricia Johnson is teaching 7th grade English and history in Richmond, where she lives with Mary Kathryn Rowell and Lynn Smithey, both working for IBM.

Charlotte Major is working in the art dept. at Old Dominion College. Teaching at Hampton H.S. are Dinah Walsh Eitelman and Gloria Langley.

Grace Marie lived in Charlottesville last year while Dick completed his five-year civil engineering program. She found 38 first graders starting at their new teacher last Sept., but decided that she had selected the right profession. She and Dick now live at 4717 Jeanne St., Apt. 202, Virginia Beach 23412, where Dick works for Tidewater Construction and Mrs. Garriott is teaching 1st grade at Thalia Elementary.

While living in Charlottesville Grace Marie was near Jebbie Beach Payne '65 and Stephanie Cadman Coker '65 in Copeley Hills.

Caroline Hogeland was married to Art Stone in February. Joan Cuccias is also married and was excited about her expected baby. Joan, send us your new name.

I received news of more weddings from Sandra Billups, now Mrs. William Henry Gibbons Stevenson III. Sandra is still working for Texaco Experiment and lives at 3591 Meadowdale Blvd., Richmond 23234. Margaret "Greg" Sheehan was wed March 8 and is now expecting a baby; Susan Hanes, on June 26; Virginia Gill on July 1; Patti Boesch on June 19, following her return from a tour of Europe; and Nancy Fisher. Girls, send us your new names.

Sharon Horner Butts will be teaching elementary school in Richmond while her husband Ed studies medicine at MCV. Also living in Richmond is Peggy Burgess, now Mrs. Nick Salamon.

Bobbi Bishop writes that she was married on June 3 to Capt. Robert A. Mann, Jr. (U.S. Army) with Eileen Goddard as Maid of Honor. Bobbi taught 3rd grade last year but will not be teaching this year, as Bob may be going to Vietnam and Bobbi will become a "mommy" in 1968. Mrs. Mann also wrote that Kathy Goddard Moss and husband, Dr. Tom, are returning from a year in Stockholm via the far East. They will spend 2-3 months in Columbia and then come back to New York City Dec. 1, where Tom will work for IBM.

Living in Durham, N.C., where her husband Wilkie is a doctoral candidate at Duke is Linda Broyles Wilson. She is teaching 3rd grade in the city schools.

Judith Lee Holcomb '65, where are you and what is your new name? Heard, via return envelope, that you are married.

I attended the wedding of Nancy Derrick to David Denslow, a Ph.D. candidate in economics at Yale. Nancy will receive her M.S. in biochemistry from Yale in Jan. and is working in a lab at Yale.

I also attended Donna Clark's wedding on July 8 to Michael Edwards. Donna received her degree in pharmacy from MCV in June and is working at MCV hospital while Mike studies for his Ph. D. in medicinal chemistry at MCV. Saw Mary Ann Gusler while in Fieldale; she is teaching in northern Virginia.

Armineh Carapetian is doing graduate work at the U. of Md. in biochemistry. Jennifer Biren is a researcher for a speech writer for Senator Edward Kennedy. Barbara Green is a reporter for the Richmond News Leader. Elizabeth Mary Brennan Pritchett is a 6th grade teacher at Berkeley Elementary, Spotsylvania County. Janet Cutler Starke is teaching French in a secondary school in Chesterfield County.

The art work of Joellyn Duesberry of Bon Air was presented in a one-man show at the Virginia Trust Co. of Richmond. She attended MWC two years and then transferred to Smith College.

Norma Woodward is teaching Portuguese at MWC. She did graduate work in Portuguese at the U. of Wis. last winter. Also there working on a doctorate in Spanish with a minor in Portuguese was Miss Rosemary Herman, on leave from the Dept. of Modern Foreign Languages.

Sally Boss of Richmond left in the fall of 1966 to spend two years teaching in a Baptist high school in Mombasa, Kenya, under the Southern Baptist Missionary Journeyman program.

From Senior Assistant at Russell Hall to Red Cross Clubmobile Service in Korea is the big step Charlotte Hausley took in July after her graduation, and she says she is happy and satisfied that she accepted the job. The Clubmobiles are stationed in five central locations and fan out from their bases daily to offer recreation programs to the Armed Service units. Driven by military personnel, they are staffed by two girls who present the programs which range from "just talk" to adult games or quizzes, cultural programs, drama or music.

Janet Heidinger was married this spring to Larry Kafka. Until her marriage Janet shared an apartment with Susan Roth. Susan has had an interesting year teaching English as a foreign language to children in New York public schools who speak Spanish and Chinese. Quite a challenge!

Janet Burnett '65 has completed her studies at U. of Toronto and will be at U. of Chicago studying for her Ph.D. on an NDEA fellowship.

Attention: Class Agent has new address. See heading. MWC grads living near the city, couldn't we arrange a big get-together?

I hope the members of the Class of '67 have adjusted to their new role as alumnae of MWC. Please, all A-C girls write me of your whereabouts and what you are doing, as I am sure every one else is as interested as I am in hearing from you.

Mary Mac Blanchard and I had a delightful summer seeing Cape Cod and New England for the first time and are now settled in our apartment in Richmond. Mary Mac is teaching an advanced group in the third level of the Continuous Progress Program at R.C. Longan Elementary School in Henrico County. I am teaching the 5th grade at A.M. Davis Elementary in Chesterfield County and attending RPI night school to get certified in elementary ed.

Helen Callahan's marriage to Chris Hutter in Lynchburg was the occasion for a reunion of quite a few MWCites. Julu Waechter and I were bridesmaids. We were able to visit with Linda Todd, who was at that time doing student teaching in Stafford County, Elise Moore, Mary Lou Murphey, Cee Goode, Connie Burkhart and Cecilia Fazzi. Helen and Chris left the reception for Monterey, Calif. where he is in the Air Force Chinese Language School — quite a switch for Helen from Latin to Chinese! All the reports from Helen indicate that she and Chris love Calif.

Elizabeth Andrews is studying hard in Charlottesville where she is working toward a master's degree at the Woodrow Wilson School of Government and Foreign Affairs of UVa.

Keith and Patricia Ann Ange Buttlesman are also living in Charlottesville where he attends the University and she is teaching in the Madison County schools.

Sandy Crews is teaching the second grade at Old Donation Elementary School at Virginia Beach.

Please drop me a line soon. Let me know if there are going to be any more weddings this fall besides Connie Burkhart's. Oh, I almost forgot to tell you that she and Rodney Goggin would be taking the vows shortly.

Betty

Judy Douglass spent a very rewarding and musical six weeks during the summer at Oakland University in Rochester, Mich. She continued her vocal training, earned graduate credit, and sang in a large chorus under the direction of Robert Shaw. Full of new ideas and choral techniques, she is now teaching vocal music at Andrew L. Johnson H.S. in Clark, N.J.

Mary Jane Jones, Sue Lowman and Mary Somerville Jones were attendants in Judy Dunn Draper's wedding in July.

Katharine Harrison is working at Dahlgren and living in the Marye Heights Apartments in Fredericksburg.

Directing a retarded children's summer day camp and writing an American History textbook for International Correspondence Schools were among the summer activities of Elisabeth Jones. Now living in a townhouse in Georgetown, she is teaching the 3rd grade at Burning Tree Elementary School in Bethesda, Md. This winter she will continue her textbook-writing job, too.

Lynn "Duck" Barnett Haupt writes that it "feels so great to be out," but she still goes home at night "thinking there must be some studying to do!" She and Richard are living in the D.C. area, but she is working in College Park, Md. at Documentation, Inc., the information facility of NASA.

"Married life is grand!" according to June bride Carolyn Johnson Beale. After a Bermuda honeymoon, she and Warren settled in Courtland where, at this writing, he is working and waiting, not too eagerly, for "Uncle Sam's call." Carolyn is teaching the 5th grade at Courtland Elementary School.

Travelers Susan Wolf and Joan Hughes spent nearly seven weeks in Europe this summer. Joan writes that they "managed to survive everything from Italian men to a 22-hour train ride from Nice to Madrid, but it was great!" Joan is teaching 10th grade English at Stonewall Jackson H.S. in Manassas.

Antoinette Bonanno Leonard sings two songs, "Sophisticated Kate" and "Don't Sweetheart Me," on a 45 RMP Vector record recently released.

Roberta "Boo" Hatcher and I are sharing an apartment at Falling Creek in Chesterfield County, just outside of Richmond. Boo is very happy as an executive trainee at Miller & Rhoads, and I'm teaching earth science at Thomas Dale H.S. in Chester. Y'all come to see us!

I'm looking forward to hearing from all new Alums with last names beginning with H-L. Mary

I have received very little news from section M-R of our class. I hope that in the near future all of you will have time to jot down some information on a card and send it to me, thereby enabling your classmates to know of your activities and you of theirs. Through the Alumnae News we can keep the class together, so please do your part by writing.

Sandy Crews, Sandi Lawhorne and I have settled in our apartment at the beach and we are all very pleased with it. I have been working at the Virginia Beach Department of Public Welfare as a Child Welfare Worker since July and am finding it very interesting. It seems that wherever you go, you can't get away from MWC-ites — Sandy Koger '65 and Annie Lou Moon Michaels '66 are also working there.

Lynne Martin's marriage to Mike Edwards brought many of our classmates together. Cee Goode was a bridesmaid. Mary Lou Murphy, who was there, has started training with Abbott, Proctor and Paine in Richmond and is looking forward to becoming a stock broker. She is more than willing to deal with any of you who might desire her services. Nina Russell, who was Mistress of Ceremonies at Lynne's wedding, is in Charlottesville working on her master's in educational psychology. Also attending the wedding were Mary Haga, Patti Eldridge, Betty Barker and Mary Mac Blanchard. Lynne and Mike are now living in Hyannis, Mass. where Lynne is teaching at Barnstable Junior Hi and Mike is in the Air Force.

Patti Marilla was married in June. She and her husband are now in the Peace Corps.

Tina Palmer is working as a mathematician at Dahlgren Naval Laboratories and has an apartment in Woodbridge with Carolinda "Candy" Schumacker '66 and Dale Quel '66. Martha Puller and Linda Todd are living in the same apartment complex. Both are teaching in elementary schools in the area.

Katri Selina Morhardt Nowak and her husband Robert Craig are living in Charlottesville where he is associated with the Ivy Realty Co. and is a law student at UVa. She is teaching at Standardsville.

Pat Rankin is teaching elementary school at Virginia Beach and living with Linda Koger.

If you are ever in the Virginia Beach area do come by and see us, or at least call.

Elise

Members of the class of 1967 were not the only proud possessors of new diplomas on June 4. Former Registrar, A. Ray Merchant, received his doctorate in Education from the U. of Va. on that date.

Miss Isabel Gordon '42, Secretary of the Placement Bureau of MWC was elected president of the Virginia College Placement Association at its annual conference held at the Sheraton Motor Inn in Fredericksburg last April. Last year she was vice president and acted as Chairman of the Program Committee for the conference.

MWC HOME ECONOMICS CLUB GIVES INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP

A $500 gift by the Home Economics Club of Mary Washington College to the International Scholarship Fund of the American Home Economics Association will enable a foreign student to do graduate work in home economics in the United States soon. An additional $1500 toward the scholarship will be paid the student from the Association's International Scholarship Fund.

Miss Judy Boyce, who is president of the Club, presented the check on behalf of "all the home economics majors of Mary Washington College" to Mrs. Kate Estes Hoge, President of the Virginia Home Economics Association.

ington College just as much as the law and legal commitments of our two governments, academic and civic, constitute a part of our pattern of living. These commitments are based on the assumption that certain areas of human relationships are not reducible into law — for a law or rule states the minimum responsibility of a citizen; whereas this commitment involves a willing agreement to obey a maximum "law" that is not actually enforceable, but which has an enormous effect upon the student's life at the College and the esteem in which she is held by her associates. Thus, the third and most all-pervasive commitment that she accepts in entering Mary Washington College is the commitment that she knowingly and freely agrees to be "obedient to the unenforceable" patterns of life and well-being that are innately associated with a college such as Mary Washington.

I trust that you will give each of these responsibilities your full attention at all times — not only in the minimum respect for rule but also in the maximum "obedience" to a way of life.

Dr. Margaret Hargrove, Dean of Students and Professor of Classics, began her academic and administrative service at the College when Chancellor Simpson was inaugurated in 1956. She spent the past summer session at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor as a Visiting Scholar in the Horace H. Rackham Graduate School and the Department of Classical Studies. Miss Hargrove serves as administrative advisor to the Student Government Association.

at its annual convention last spring. Our students were given a standing ovation and Mrs. Hoge recommended that the fund be named the Mary Washington Scholarship Fund. Mrs. S.W. Jamison is sponsor of the Club.

This is the first time a club or college in Virginia has contributed the initial sum for the scholarship. Previously the state organization presented two scholarships from general funds. Miss Elizabeth Simson from Uruguay, the first recipient, is now in charge of the extension program in South America. The second student, Miss Ayse Baysal, received a M.S. degree from VPI and a Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin and is now the director of the medical nutrition program at University Hospital in Ankara, Turkey.

About 1950 the Home Economics Club established the account which finally made the scholarship possible. Any surplus above club expenses went into the account and small deposits from dues and fund raising projects, such as catering for a reception, were added each year. At one time the girls had hoped that they might bring a foreign student to Mary Washington, but they found that the National Scholarship Fund's stipend must be used for graduate study.

Miss Mary Montgomery, former member of the math department, is teaching again this year in Rome, Italy. She spent the summer traveling and studying Spanish. Miss Lia Biaretta, former member of the department of modern foreign languages, whose home is in Italy, visited her last winter.

Peggy Kelley Reinburg '58 (Mrs. James M.), former president of the national Association and instructor of organ at MWC last year, will again assist with the Abendmusik series of concerts at Union Methodist Church, Washington, where she is organist and director of music. These concerts, which have been enjoyed by music lovers in the Washington area for several years, will be presented on the second Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m. and are open to the public. Mrs. Reinburg will be accompanist for some of the programs.

SPRING COUNCIL MEETING

The Alumnae Council meeting, held April 29, 1967, centered around the workings of the Alumnae Board of Directors in a most informative panel discussion in the morning session. The afternoon session included chapter reports and discussions of the Council business. The Alumnae Council structure was reorganized at this meeting. The offices of President and Secretary of the Council were eliminated, and the authority of all Council activities was invested in the Third Vice-Chairman of the Alumnae Association. This change was consistent with the broader scope of the Council activities which now involve much more than just the Spring Council meeting.

Only seven of the 16 chapters were represented at the Council meeting. Since there are now new avenues of service which chapters may perform for the Alumnae Association, the College and the student body, it is recommended by the Council that each chapter support it and send its best leadership to the annual Spring meeting. Participation in the Council also familiarizes alumnae with the organization and affairs of the National Association and thus provides excellent training for service on the National level.

It is time to send in your nominations for the 1968 Distinguished Alumna, says Mrs. Mary Janes Fisher, Chairman of the Committee. Nomination blanks will be mailed soon with the first letter of the Fund Drive, and should be returned to Mrs. Fisher at 1519 Northern Parkway, Baltimore, Md. 21212, by Dec. 1.

Other members of the committee are Miss Ethel Nash, Fredericksburg; Miss Eloise Strader, Winchester; Mrs. Jean Basnight, Norfolk; and Miss Helen Wills, Bon Air.

THE CLASS OF 1967

By Tom Mann

Mary Washington College graduates who stepped from the campus to the "world outside" last June found it ready and waiting - with good jobs and good salaries.

A survey conducted by the Mary Washington College Placement Bureau has thus far drawn 296 responses from the 366 member class and shows that some 273 of the graduates are employed or are continuing their education.

Teaching was once more the most popular profession for the young graduates with 138 of those reporting so employed. Most of the new teachers, some 108, remained in the Old Dominion to pursue their careers. Others, however, went as far afield as New Hampshire, Florida and California.

Perhaps, reflecting the times, some 51 of those responding found employment with the federal or state governments. Private industry on the other hand hired 38 of the new graduates.

Almost as many, 31, decided to continue their formal education and are attending graduate school somewhere this year, while an equally large number, 25, were married and became housewives.

At least four of the graduates found employment overseas: two in Brazil with the Peace Corps, one in Paris with the U. S. Government and one in Madrid with a private firm.

The beginning salaries for those who replied ranged from $600 a year for two who signed up as Vista Volunteers to $8,100 to one who became a Systems Engineer. The average annual salary for those who responded was placed at $5,640.
